

SPIRIT OF ENERGY INFUSED INTO THE BOARD OF TRADE

Prospect of a New Industry Arouses Members to Activity.

SOMETHING GOOD IN SIGHT

A Meeting Will Be Held On Monday Night and Its Nature Explained.

LARGE MANUFACTURING PLANT

Although the new board of trade has been organized but a little over a week, there has been a great deal of discouraging talk concerning the organization, and until last night it looked as though the movement might be given up, as the membership seemed to have lost interest.

Everything is changed today, however, since President Croxall notified the secretary last evening that a meeting would be held on Monday night. It is now thought the board will take up the work coming under its jurisdiction with a degree of interest that will assure the success of the movement.

A stranger came to the city yesterday, and without difficulty located the officers of the board. He is desirous of locating a large manufacturing concern in the Ohio valley, and should he get the necessary encouragement would as soon locate here as anywhere else.

The officers of the board refuse to give out the sort of industry in which the promoter is interested, but it is understood that if the local organization succeeds in landing it, the city will be greatly benefited. It is said the plans for the plant are already in such shape that work could be started on its erection within a few weeks. Several hundred men will be employed, and it is alleged that the industry is of such a nature that, in case it is brought here, the chances for more of the same sort will be excellent.

A prominent member of the board said today: "The East Liverpool board of trade has an opportunity to prove that it is composed of the right sort of material, and it is hoped the proposition to be submitted on next Monday will be favorably considered at that time. I would hate to have it said that East Liverpool could not support an organization of this character, but it certainly did look that way for a few days. I believe the crisis is past, however, and that things will move along smoothly."

WOULD-BE THUGS

TRIED TO GET POSSESSION OF A STRANGER'S MONEY.

He Was Equal to the Emergency, However, And Blocked Their Game.

A well dressed stranger who claimed to be a blacksmith and called Beaver Falls his home, arrived in the city last evening. He made his way to a Second street saloon, where he met several agreeable young men, and in a few minutes drinks were flowing in great abundance at the stranger's expense.

When he squared his account with the bartender the blacksmith revealed a roll of bills of monstrous size which made the eyes of his companions fairly bulge from their sockets. Two of the fellows, it is said, undertook to "work" the stranger and relieve him of his money.

Accordingly the whisky bottle was called for and the intended victim urged to drink. He did so, but he took particular notice his "friends" did likewise. Time after time the bottle was passed around with the result that all of the fellows began to become seasick.

When the two who had planned the robbery thought the stranger was properly "fixed" they suggested that he take a walk. He consented, but no sooner had he reached the street than he told his newly made acquaintances they would have to excuse him a moment until he turned his money over to the proprietor of the saloon for safe keeping. This balked the plans of the fellows, and they promptly started off.

At this juncture the stranger burst into a hearty laugh, explaining to the would-be thugs that he was aware of their scheme, and that he just wanted to "jolly" them a little.

CALLIPOLIS BOY MISSING

HIS FATHER ASKS CHIEF THOMPSON FOR INFORMATION.

Thought the Body of the Boy Found in the River at Chester Might Be That of His Son.

Chief Thompson is in receipt of a letter from Robert P. Alexander, of Callipolis, asking for a description of the body of boy which was found several days ago in the river near Chester. Mr. Alexander states that his 13-year old son has been missing from home for several weeks, and that no trace of him has been found. He thought the boy might have come to this city and accidentally fell into the river.

A picture of the lad was enclosed in the envelope, together with his description, as follows: Height, four feet 11 inches; light hair, blue eyes, wore gray clothes with knee breeches. He is thought to have run away from home.

The body found at Chester was positively identified by Thomas Gaughan, whose home is at Allegheny, as being that of his son. Hence, it will doubtless be a relief to Mr. Alexander to learn that it was not his boy.

A GOOD JOKE

Employers of the Murphy Pottery Are Having Much Fun at Will DeBee's Expense.

The employees of the Murphy pottery are having considerable fun at the expense of William DeBee, one of their number, who is contemplating a trip to the Buffalo exposition. Yesterday afternoon several of the fellows who work with DeBee procured an old, worn-out valise on which they painted his name.

This morning the receptacle was found suspended from the cross arm of a telephone pole in front of the pottery. On one side appears these words: "Will DeBee, off for Buffalo;" on the other side is: "Let me off at Buffalo, or I'll get lost." Passengers on the trains today were much amused at the sight, and the pottery boys except DeBee enjoyed the joke thoroughly.

WILL NOT GO OVER

Richard Walker Will Escape the Workhouse—Wife Has Raised His Fine.

Richard Walker, who is held at the city jail under sentence to serve a term at the workhouse, will likely escape that unsought distinction. Mrs. Walker has been making an effort to raise the cash necessary to secure her husband's release, and this morning she informed Chief Thompson she had succeeded.

The fine and costs amount to $14.60, but Richard admits he got off lucky. He says he proposes in the future to shun the flowing bowl.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

A Sixth Street Lady Badly Injured While Beating a Carpet.

Mrs. Nellie Fowler, of Sixth street, was the victim of a very peculiar accident yesterday.

The lady was engaged in beating a carpet in the back yard, and had placed a heavy prop under the clothes line. In some manner the stick became dislodged at the top and fell, striking Mrs. Fowler squarely on the head. She was unconscious for some time, but was finally able to walk to the house. The injury is giving her considerable pain today.

Many Will Be There.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the I. O. O. F. Canton's picnic here June 5 continue to receive encouraging letters from all over the district, and this morning heard from Martha Washington Lodge No. 61, Daughters of Rebekah, at Uhrichsville, stating that they would attend.

SUSPECTED OF BEING INSANE

HIS FRIENDS NONPLUSSED

Can't Account for His Strange Actions—Willis Was Employed for About a Year by the Ceramic Light Company, But Resigned.

Fred Willis, a lineman, has disappeared, and it is reported that he is insane. He has worked in the city about a year. He quit his job Saturday night, but it is believed he is still lurking about the city and some of his acquaintances report having seen him since Saturday evening though he said he was going to start for New York that night.

Willis claims Cleveland as his home. He came to this city one year ago and soon after his arrival here secured employment with the Ceramic City Light company. He was an excellent workman and steady man in the company's employ. He was strictly temperate, and was never known to touch liquor in any form until one day last week. Friday afternoon he became helplessly drunk while on duty, and he had to be sent home to sober up.

Again on Saturday Willis became intoxicated, and continued to imbibe liquor until late that night, when he went to a Second street boarding house and slept on the floor of a room which he had left two weeks previous. Another man had in the meantime engaged the room, but Willis told him he had been given permission by the landlady to sleep there. She was not aware of the man's presence until the following morning after he had taken his departure.

Saturday evening Willis drew his wages from the pay clerk at the power house, when he stated he had secured a position in New York and expected to leave East Liverpool that night. Although his employers have not seen him since, several of his acquaintances claim he has not left the city. He left a telescope filled with clothing at Jack Peake's store Saturday night, but has not yet called for it.

Judging from the man's actions it is the belief of those who are acquainted with him that he is mentally unbalanced. Men who have worked with Willis say he has often caused them to wonder at his peculiar characteristics, and that he at different times would show signs of a brain affection.

Not even the most trusted friends of the man have ever been able to learn anything from him regarding his past history. He often spoke of his parents and sisters, but never about himself.

Previous to his coming to this city Willis worked in a car shop at Pittsburgh. He claimed to have been robbed by a roommate while at Pittsburgh and said he lost all the clothes and money he had. When he reached this city he was almost in rags, but soon dressed himself in good style after going to work, and when he quit his position had a fine outfit. He attended church regularly and was very particular in picking his company. Willis had no friendly feeling for a man who drank, and it was his favorite hobby to denounce liquor and the saloon. It was, therefore, a great surprise to his friends to learn of him being drunk and staggering about the streets.

The strongest evidence of the man's insanity is his imagination that he is constantly being imposed upon. His fellow workmen say he constantly had fault to find with some one whom he would suspect of doing him injury. He was always talking about having other positions tendered to him and would claim he had been offered salaries of almost fabulous amounts.

It was dangerous to attempt to discredit any of the stories Willis told. He had a very fiery temper and would fight on the least provocation. However, he was not regarded as a fighting man and under ordinary circumstances was pleasant and agreeable. He made many friends during his stay in the city and was well liked. It is intimated by a former roommate that he is worried over the past, but what the cause is has never been learned. His case is a mysterious one.

JOHN C. AMMON GETS A DIVORCE

BIG BILL FOR FARM WORK

A Lad Near Salineville Claims $1,560 Is Due Him And Goes to Court. Probate Matters Which Are Receiving the Attention of Judge Boone.

Lisbon, May 22.—(Special.)—John C. Ammon was granted a divorce today from Minnie Ammon, on statutory grounds. They were married in Wellsville in 1898. Ollie Buzzard and Brade Larkin, young men of East Liverpool, were named as co-respondents.

John Russell, through his guardian, William Swarts, began an action today against the estate of the late Christina McGillivray, of Salineville. Russell is 17 years old, and since June, 1894, lived on the McGillivray farm, taking care of the stock, digging coal and assisting in farm work. He had worked for 78 months, when Miss McGillivray died last December. He claims his services were worth $20 a month over and above his board and clothing. He wants judgment for $1,560. He has presented his claim to Alexander McBane, the executor, who refused to pay it.

The late Clarence R. Henderson, of Unity township, left no will. C. P. Rothwell was appointed administrator today with $3,000 bond. C. A. Lentz, Stewart Hasson and W. M. Koch were appointed appraisers.

Pauline S. Borton, one of the trustees named in the will of the late Sarah H. Campbell, having failed to qualify, and Horace P. Borton, the other trustee, having died, Judge Boone today appointed M. H. Kelly as trustee with $5,000 bond.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL

WILL SOON BE A REALITY IN EAST LIVERPOOL.

J. T. Herbert is Organizing a New Club Which is Expected to Be a Hummer.

East Liverpool within the next few weeks will be sporting a base ball team, which, it is claimed, will be a credit to the city. While all the players have not as yet been selected, it is the purpose of the managers to institute a first-class club that will be able to play professional ball and play it properly.

J. T. Herbert is organizing the team. He is negotiating at present with four outside parties, all of whom he expects to sign. The others necessary to complete the aggregation will be local players. Mr. Herbert, together with Attorney G. Y. Travis, has leased ground on Thompson's hill and within the next few days work will be commenced on erecting a grand stand and cutting out a diamond.

It is the belief of the parties who have given the matter support, that a good base ball team will be a paying proposition in this city. It is also believed that the patrons of the game would rather have the grounds on this side of the river than be compelled to go over to the park every time a game is played.

Attorney Travis is acting as secretary for the new club, and is already booking games for this season. It is not yet known when the grounds will be ready, but the players will begin practicing as soon as a full lineup has been signed.

NEARING AN END

BELIEF THAT PLUMBERS' STRIKE WILL SOON BE OVER.

An Agreement Which the Employers Are Expected to Sign By Tonight.

The strike which was inaugurated by the journeymen plumbers on May 1, will in all probability be brought to a close this evening.

The first of a number of conferences was held last Friday evening and at that time the grievance committee of Trades Council was present and it looked as though a concession would have to be reached by the journeymen before a settlement could be reached.

Another meeting was held on Monday night, but nothing was accomplished. It was arranged at that time for the employers to meet with the union yesterday afternoon. The meeting proved to be more productive than the usual ones, and when it ended those of the master plumbers represented had partially pledged themselves to sign the scale as it stands. Those firms are Arbutnot & Bro., Eagle Hardware, T. E. Nagle, Kinsey Plumbing company.

The two sections to which the bosses objected will, it is said, remain as they are. The scale committee madethe rounds this afternoon, and it is thought all the firms that have not already done so will sign.

A UNION PLANT

SUCH WILL BE FORD CITY CHINA WORKS HEREAFTER.

Conditions Have Been Far From Satisfactory Heretofore—Forced to Be Reorganized.

Within the next few weeks the large plant of the Ford City China company, operated by John Wick, will be unionized throughout the entire factory.

Negotiations have been on for several weeks between the officials of the National Brotherhood and Mr. Wick and late last week it was definitely arranged that the movement should be started at once.

Affairs at the pottery, which is an 18-kiln affair, employing several hundred men, have been anything but satisfactory, and the fact that competent men connected with the Brotherhood were extremely hard to find, has had much to do with the determination on the part of the management to unionize the concern.

Another, and perhaps the most logical reason for the change, is that it had been whispered about in Brotherhood circles that an aggressive campaign was about to be inaugurated, and experience had taught the management of the Ford City concern that this is an expensive proposition. There may be no truth in the above statement, but it is given for what it is worth.

The employees of the plant at Ford City are made up principally of farmers, with but little practical knowledge of the trades in which they are engaged, and the result has been a very poor grade of ware was produced.

Mr. Wick is advertising for men in every branch of the trade, and from that it is understood the management propose making a complete revolution.

Inquiry was made at Brotherhood headquarters, but little could be learned other than to draw out the statement from Secretary Duffy that the town would be placed on the fair list in the near future. He stated that interviews had been held with Mr. Wick by President Hughes and himself, and that the plans had been formed several days ago. President Hughes was not in his office and could not be seen.

However, nothing can be done toward the organization until the forces in the various shops can be changed and good men installed in their places.

NARROW ESCAPE

A Squall Came Up Which Badly Damaged the New Craft. No One Hurt.

London, May 22.—(Special.)—Shamrock II, was badly disabled in a squall this morning, losing her mast, rigging and gear. No one was injured. King Edward was aboard and had a miraculous escape.

CADETS DROPPED

Terribly Scalds Young Jay Davis And Less Seriously Injures Three Others—He Will Probably Recover. The Accident Due to a Defect.

Salineville, May 22. — (Special.)—Harry Bates, aged 15 years, is lying at his home in this city suffering from serious cuts and bruises which he sustained by a fall last evening. The lad's escape from instant death is miraculous.

Young Bates was walking across the trestle, which is 35 feet in height, leading up to the tipple of the Sterling coal mine. His foot slipped on one of the ties and he was sent sprawling to the outer edge of the high frame work.

He made a frantic effort to save himself, but was unable to catch hold of the ties in time to avoid the terrible fall he subsequently received. In his descent the boy started head downward, but fortunately his body turned and he alighted on his side. He fell on a pile of the refuse of the mine.

When the boy was picked up it was thought life was extinct. He was carried to his home, where a surgeon made an examination, with the result that he found no bones were broken. The bruises are of a dangerous nature and internal injuries are feared. However, it is not thought death will result.

Only a few years ago another boy fell from the same trestle and alighted on the same spot as did young Bates. He died from his injuries.

BOILER EXPLODES

AT A LISBON MINE AND FOUR PERSONS ARE SCALDED.

One of the Injured, a Lad of 16, Was Terribly Hurt—Cause of Accident.

Lisbon, May 22. — (Special.)—The boiler at the Klondike mine at Card & Prosser, one mile south of this city, exploded at 6 a. m. today. Jay Davis, of Lisbon, aged 16, was terribly scalded about the face, head and back. He is a son of the late M. L. Davis. Hiram and Harry Lamborn and William Rigdon were slightly scalded. A defect in the boiler caused the explosion.

The Davis boy is expected to recover, although terribly injured.

LABOR DAY PICNIC

Its Promoters Intend to Make It a Big And Successful Affair.

The Labor Day picnic committee will meet tonight for the purpose of organizing and arranging such preliminaries as will be necessary to get the work in proper shape.

It is the intention of the committee to make the picnic this year the most successful and enjoyable ever held by Trades Council, and with that end in view propose starting early enough that nothing which will contribute to the success of the affair will be omitted.

The meeting proved to be more productive than the usual ones, and when it ended those of the master plumbers represented had partially pledged themselves to sign the scale as it stands. Those firms are Arbutnot & Bro., Eagle Hardware, T. E. Nagle, Kinsey Plumbing company.

The two sections to which the bosses objected will, it is said, remain as they are. The scale committee made the rounds this afternoon, and it is thought all the firms that have not already done so will sign.

A UNION PLANT

SUCH WILL BE FORD CITY CHINA WORKS HEREAFTER.

Conditions Have Been Far From Satisfactory Heretofore—Forced to Be Reorganized.

Within the next few weeks the large plant of the Ford City China company, operated by John Wick, will be unionized throughout the entire factory.

Negotiations have been on for several weeks between the officials of the National Brotherhood and Mr. Wick and late last week it was definitely arranged that the movement should be started at once.

Affairs at the pottery, which is an 18-kiln affair, employing several hundred men, have been anything but satisfactory, and the fact that competent men connected with the Brotherhood were extremely hard to find, has had much to do with the determination on the part of the management to unionize the concern.

Another, and perhaps the most logical reason for the change, is that it had been whispered about in Brotherhood circles that an aggressive campaign was about to be inaugurated, and experience had taught the management of the Ford City concern that this is an expensive proposition. There may be no truth in the above statement, but it is given for what it is worth.

The employees of the plant at Ford City are made up principally of farmers, with but little practical knowledge of the trades in which they are engaged, and the result has been a very poor grade of ware was produced.

Mr. Wick is advertising for men in every branch of the trade, and from that it is understood the management propose making a complete revolution.

Inquiry was made at Brotherhood headquarters, but little could be learned other than to draw out the statement from Secretary Duffy that the town would be placed on the fair list in the near future. He stated that interviews had been held with Mr. Wick by President Hughes and himself, and that the plans had been formed several days ago. President Hughes was not in his office and could not be seen.

However, nothing can be done toward the organization until the forces in the various shops can be changed and good men installed in their places.

NARROW ESCAPE

A Squall Came Up Which Badly Damaged the New Craft. No One Hurt.

London, May 22.—(Special.)—Shamrock II, was badly disabled in a squall this morning, losing her mast, rigging and gear. No one was injured. King Edward was aboard and had a miraculous escape.

CADETS DROPPED

A Number Dismissed From West Point By Official Orders.

Washington, May 22.—(Special.)—The names of the West Point cadets who were dismissed today are: Bolby, Nebraska; Cleveland, Alabama; Toller, New York; Linton, Michigan, and Mahaffy, Texas.

Elks' Outing Postponed.

The outing at Fenwood, which had been arranged by the local lodge of Elks, was postponed this morning owing to the heavy rain then falling.

Harry Bates, a Salineville Lad, Tumbled 35 Feet at a Tiptoe.

WAS PICKED UP UNCONSCIOUS

EXPLOSION AT A LISBON MINE

Terribly Scalds Young Jay Davis And Less Seriously Injures Three Others—He Will Probably Recover. The Accident Due to a Defect.

Salineville, May 22.—(Special.)—Harry Bates, aged 15 years, is lying at his home in this city suffering from serious cuts and bruises which he sustained by a fall last evening. The lad's escape from instant death is miraculous.

Young Bates was walking across the trestle, which is 35 feet in height, leading up to the tipple of the Sterling coal mine. His foot slipped on one of the ties and he was sent sprawling to the outer edge of the high frame work.

He made a frantic effort to save himself, but was unable to catch hold of the ties in time to avoid the terrible fall he subsequently received. In his descent the boy started head downward, but fortunately his body turned and he alighted on his side. He fell on a pile of the refuse of the mine.

When the boy was picked up it was thought life was extinct. He was carried to his home, where a surgeon made an examination, with the result that he found no bones were broken. The bruises are of a dangerous nature and internal injuries are feared. However, it is not thought death will result.

Only a few years ago another boy fell from the same trestle and alighted on the same spot as did young Bates. He died from his injuries.

BOILER EXPLODES

AT A LISBON MINE AND FOUR PERSONS ARE SCALDED.

One of the Injured, a Lad of 16, Was Terribly Hurt—Cause of Accident.

Lisbon, May 22.—(Special.)—The boiler at the Klondike mine at Card & Prosser, one mile south of this city, exploded at 6 a. m. today. Jay Davis, of Lisbon, aged 16, was terribly scalded about the face, head and back. He is a son of the late M. L. Davis. Hiram and Harry Lamborn and William Rigdon were slightly scalded. A defect in the boiler caused the explosion.

The Davis boy is expected to recover, although terribly injured.

LABOR DAY PICNIC

Its Promoters Intend to Make It a Big And Successful Affair.

The Labor Day picnic committee will meet tonight for the purpose of organizing and arranging such preliminaries as will be necessary to get the work in proper shape.

It is the intention of the committee to make the picnic this year the most successful and enjoyable ever held by Trades Council, and with that end in view propose starting early enough that nothing which will contribute to the success of the affair will be omitted.

HURT HIS HEAD

Mike Reynolds, a kilnhand at the Dresden pottery, met with an accident while at work yesterday afternoon. He was engaged in placing saggars in bungs and was standing on a sagger so as to enable him to reach the top when it crushed beneath his weight.

Part of a bung fell and struck him, cutting a gash three inches long on his hand. He was taken to the office of Dr. Brindley, where the injury was dressed.

GLEANINGS OF A DAY

THE LOCAL POTTERIES

Local Union No. 12, jiggermen, held its regular meeting last evening, and it was very largely attended. A committee consisting of Charles Dorff, Mike Lynch and George McNicol were appointed to have charge of the arrangements for the base ball game with the members of No. 4, which will be played at the Brotherhood picnic. The committee will select the players who will represent No. 12 and get the team into the field for practice. The game will undoubtedly be one of the best of the season, as some of the cleverest players in the city are members of the organization.

The warehousemen of the D. E. McNicol pottery have organized a base ball team and on Saturday will play the warehousemen of the Laughlin No. 2 pottery. They will line up as follows: Kearns, catcher; Herron, pitcher; Shaw, shortstop; D. Biggins, first base; A. Biggins, second; McFall, third; McKinnon, left; Knoblock, center; Corns, right. The game will be played in the East End.

The decorators and kilnhands of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery played a game of ball a few days ago and the decorators were defeated. They are not satisfied, claiming they were unable to have their best players in the game, as they were sick. Manager Thompson thinks he can defeat the kilnhands and would like to play them as soon as possible.

George Weingartner met with a painful accident while at work at the new end of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Monday afternoon. He is a jiggerman and struck the tool with his right hand, badly cutting his fingers. He went to the office of a physician, where the injury was dressed. He will be unable to work for several days.

Jake Elwell, a presser at the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery, will resign his position Thursday. He, in company with his children, Minnie and Harry, will go to Cincinnati, where they have been engaged to furnish music at a hall. They play harp and violins.

The pump has been placed in the well at the National plant and the employes are drinking water that comes from 80 feet beneath the surface. The water is excellent and of sufficient quantity to supply all the employes even in the hottest weather.

Charles Ball, who is employed as a mold runner at the new end of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, will resign his position Saturday. He claims that this town is not fast enough for him and that he will return to his home in Steubenville.

The members of Potters' Union No. 20, Steubenville, have added a sick benefit feature for the purpose of helping each other in times of sickness, and have adopted rules for governing the new feature.

J. Alberger, of Peoria, Ill., has accepted a position as moldmaker at the Union. He is now engaged in blocking cases for a new toilet set, and it is thought it will be out in three days.

Dave Wright, a packer at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery, will resign his position Thursday and will go to Sebring, where he has accepted a position.

Ed Barrett has resigned his position as jiggerman at the E. M. Knowles plant and on Thursday will go to work at the Union. He will run the big jigger.

The Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery yesterday packed a car of ware for J. Prue, of Sioux City, Ia. It was shipped today.

The pressers and jiggermen at the D. E. McNicol pottery will commence work Monday on the new shape dinner set.

The new packing department being erected at the China works will be completed in a few days.

Thomas Farmer, Jr., has accepted a position as presser at the Union.

CAUGHT A FISH

East End Lady Makes a Singular Discovery in Hydrant Water.

Mrs. Charles Herbert has the latest fishing experience to relate. After drawing a glass of water from the hydrant yesterday she was surprised to find that the tumbler contained a creature about one and a half inches in length, which is said to be a snake eel. It had evidently come through the water pipe from the reservoir.

Mrs. Herbert placed the fish in a bottle of water, where she thinks it may form the nucleus of an aquarium to be derived from the same source.

PAINFUL INJURY

Accidentally Received By William Chaffin While at Work This Morning.

William Chaffin met with a very painful accident while working at the National pottery this morning. He is employed in the sliphouse, and when removing a leaf of clay, one of the chambers dropped upon his thumb, tearing the end off up to the bone. The ball of the thumb was also badly lacerated, and it was necessary to remove the nail.

Mr. Chaffin was compelled to discontinue work and will probably not be back for some days.

IMPROVING THE ROAD

Thoroughfare to Beaver Creek Being Put in Good Condition.

The road commissioner and his force of workmen are putting the road between the East End and Beaver creek in excellent condition. When the bridge at Dry Run is completed this will be one of the best improved thoroughfares leading out of the city.

TUMOR REMOVED.

From the Forehead of James Means' Little Son.

Harold, the six-year-old son of James Means, of St. George street, underwent a light surgical operation yesterday evening. A fatty tumor had grown on the lad's forehead near the right temple. It was removed by Drs. Hobbs and Bailey, and the patient is getting on nicely today.

Will Lecture on Hygiene.

Dr. W. M. Calhoun will deliver a lecture on "Practical Hygiene" at the Second M. E. church tomorrow evening. This is the second of the series of free lectures which are given under the auspices of the Epworth League. Dr. Calhoun is well qualified to handle this subject, and the lecture will doubtless be an interesting one.

Successful Festival.

The festival given by the Young People of the Second U. P. church last evening was moderately successful despite the inclement weather. The attendance was fairly good and quite a neat sum was realized.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

John Smith and wife are visiting at Mansfield.

John Thompson has moved into his new residence on the Thompson boulevard. He has also commenced the erection of a new stable.

John Forbes brought the engine which he purchased at Smith's Ferry to the East End today and will start the sand crusher on the Riley place at once.

Edward Greene, who was injured by falling over a gas pipe Sunday, is not improving. His right lung is giving him much trouble, and it is feared that his internal injuries may prove serious.

Notice to Teachers.

GET YOUR TICKETS AT REED'S FOR THE LIQUID AIR LECTURE MAY 24.

A Large Plant in Salem.

William Asbury, of 612 East Main street, noticed in the Herald an account of a large asparagus stalk, and this morning brought a stalk to this office which knocks the spots off all others yet reported. This record breaker is five inches in circumference and weighs 9½ ounces. It is on exhibition at Day & Townsend's.—Salem Herald.

WOMAN NEVER SAW PHILLIPS.

Nothing to Her Discredit in Connection With Stanley.

New York, May 22.—The mysterious woman, who was said to have been known as Mrs. Kirke Stanley and to have figured in the Father Phillips case, was at the office of Coroner Bausch and made a long statement under oath. Later the coroner said that after questioning the woman closely he was of the opinion that she knew nothing of the death of Father Phillips and could be of no use in the inquest.

The coroner said that the young woman met Stanley, the masseur, about a year ago in a social way. She broke her ankle soon after this and went to Stanley on a number of occasions to receive the hot air treatment. The coroner said he was convinced that there was nothing in her connection with Stanley which could be interpreted as being to her discredit. She went early last week to the Ninth avenue house to have her foot dressed and attended to, and at that time Stanley was sober. Later she had gone back there and, finding him intoxicated, she left and had not returned to the place. This, he said, would explain her so-called disappearance.

The woman, according to Coroner Bausch, never saw Father Phillips.

DEVoured BY A BEAR

Horrible Fate of Three West Virginia Children.

THE MANGLED REMAINS FOUND

Little Tots Had Wandered Away From Home—The Wild Beast Located Later and Shot by a Maryland Hunter.

Job, W. Va., May 22.—A frightful fate befell the three young children of E. P. Porterfield, a mountaineer residing about 12 miles southeast of this place. The remains were found by a searching party which had been out since Sunday evening.

The children were Mary, aged 3; Willie, aged 5, and Henry, aged 7. Shortly after noon Sunday they left home to gather flowers in a clearing near their home. Nothing more is known, but it is supposed that they wandered into the woods and becoming lost continued on their way until they were overtaken by the bear in the dense forest, three miles from their parents' home.

The bear feasted off all three of the bodies. The bones of the children had been crushed like straws and the flesh stripped off with teeth and claws. The party divided and began a search. Within a few minutes John Weldon, a Maryland hunter, discovered it in a thick clump of hemlock saplings near a small stream. A single shot ended its life. It was declared to be the largest bear ever seen in this neighborhood.

The bodies of the children, which presented a sickening sight, were carried home in sacks. The parents of the children are almost crazed with grief, their bereavement leaving them childless.

JOHNSON AFTER RAILROADS

Court Ordered Tax Assessment Boards to Examine Railway Officials, as to Values.

Cleveland, May 22.—Upon application of Mayor Johnson, Judge Strimple, of the common-pleas court, issued a writ of mandamus compelling some eight or nine county auditors, now sitting in this city, as a railroad tax assessment board, to call in railway officials to testify as to the true value of their properties. Johnson declares that the railroads have thus far been assessed at from 12 to 18 per cent of their value, while the smaller property owners in Cleveland have been taxed at the rate of 60 per cent or more. The mayor averred in his petition that the "auditors were corruptly influenced by favors to them by the railroad companies to influence their decision and avoid the making of true and correct appraisal."

The Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling was the railroad under consideration by the auditors. Before the writ was served on the auditors they had assessed the road, although the mayor notified them of the court's action.

The mayor holds, as a result, that the action of the board is illegal, and says he will now ask for an injunction prohibiting the clerk from placing the assessment of the road on record.

SERVICES FOR MRS. GAGE

They Will Be Held This Afternoon, to Be Conducted by Rev. Dr. Hillis.

Chicago, May 22.—The remains of Mrs. Lyman J. Gage arrived from Washington, accompanied by Secretary Gage, his daughter, Mrs. Pierce; Mrs. Gage's sister, Mrs. Hendee, of Yonkers, N. Y.; D. H. Burnham and Rev. N. D. Hillis, who officiated at the funeral services in Washington and who will conduct the rites at the grave.

The funeral party arrived on the Pennsylvania limited, and, transferring to the Northwestern, proceeded to Rose Hill cemetery, where the body was placed in the receiving vault. The services this afternoon will be strictly private.

EX-SOLDIER ACCUSED.

Charged at Manila With Forging Checks and Endorsements.

Manila, May 22.—E. C. Lawrence, formerly a private in the Thirty-third volunteer infantry and afterwards employed as a civilian clerk in the adjutant general's office at Manila, has been accused of forging the signature of Captain Slavens, the insular disbursing officer, to certain checks purporting to be payable to General MacArthur. On the backs of the checks were forged endorsements of General MacArthur to General Shafter and to E. C. Lawrence. Two of these checks of $200 each have been cashed at San Francisco, but another negotiated at St. Louis has been returned to Manila and pronounced spurious by Captain Slavens. Lawrence is suspected of other forgeries.

The insurgents made an unsuccessful attack upon the village of Nacartan, in Laguna province. A private of the Eighth infantry was killed in the engagement.

To Go to Ohio University.

Philadelphia, May 22.—Dr. James Edward Haggerty, instructor in economics in the Wharton school of the University of Pennsylvania, has received an appointment as assistant professor of economics at the Ohio State university, Columbus, O., and will begin work in his new position in September.

TOLD IN EAST LIVERPOOL

It's the Evidence of East Liverpool People, Published in East Liverpool Papers, That Has Made Such a Reputation for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments in the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to certify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known—it is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of Nerve Force. Mrs. C. L. Yager, of 152 Broadway, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines are all good. I got them at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, as I was nervous, run down, felt miserable and the heart action was weak and irregular. The medicine made me strong and my nerves steady. The heart action regular and strong and altogether a different person, as I feel well and hearty again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Cold Expands Them.

A civil engineer who is in Alaska has written home to Chicago that the rails on the Chilkoot Pass railway expand with the cold instead of contracting, as they would be supposed to do. A temperature ranging from 12 degrees to 40 degrees below zero F. would not appreciably affect the length of rails, but severer cold than that would be attended with expansion. This is certainly an exception to a law of nature, although water shrinks as it cools until 39 degrees F. is reached, when it begins to expand.

An Inference.

"I just know she is ten years older than she admits," said the woman with the sharp nose.

"How?" asked the other half of the duo.

"Why would she be letting that 16-year-old kid make love to her if she were as young as she pretends?"—Indianapolis Press.

Tit For Tat.

A celebrated but very vain and overbearing French painter in Paris had a pet dog that was taken ill, and he had the audacity to send for one of the leading physicians in the capital, on the assumption that a veterinary surgeon was not good enough for the valuable dog of so great a personage as himself.

The physician who had been honored with the summons was at first perturbed at the impertinence of the notion, but soon recovered his equanimity and returned the following message to the knight of the brush:

"Would M. M— be good enough to step over to my house, as I have a couple of new window shutters that want painting?"

A Literal Construction.

In a school for colored children there was a little boy who would persist in saying "have went," says a contributor to The Christian Endeavor World.

The teacher kept him in one night and said:

"Now while I am out of the room you may write 'have gone' 50 times."

When the teacher came back, he looked at the boy's paper and there was "have gone 50 times." On the other side was written, "I have went home."

DEVoured BY A BEAR

Horrible Fate of Three West Virginia Children.

THE MANGLED REMAINS FOUND

Job, W. Va., May 22.—A frightful fate befell the three young children of E. P. Porterfield, a mountaineer residing about 12 miles southeast of this place. The remains were found by a searching party which had been out since Sunday evening.

The children were Mary, aged 3; Willie, aged 5, and Henry, aged 7. Shortly after noon Sunday they left home to gather flowers in a clearing near their home. Nothing more is known, but it is supposed that they wandered into the woods and becoming lost continued on their way until they were overtaken by the bear in the dense forest, three miles from their parents' home.

The bear feasted off all three of the bodies. The bones of the children had been crushed like straws and the flesh stripped off with teeth and claws. The party divided and began a search. Within a few minutes John Weldon, a Maryland hunter, discovered it in a thick clump of hemlock saplings near a small stream. A single shot ended its life. It was declared to be the largest bear ever seen in this neighborhood.

The bodies of the children, which presented a sickening sight, were carried home in sacks. The parents of the children are almost crazed with grief, their bereavement leaving them childless.

JOHNSON AFTER RAILROADS

Court Ordered Tax Assessment Boards to Examine Railway Officials, as to Values.

Cleveland, May 22.—Upon application of Mayor Johnson, Judge Strimple, of the common pleas court, issued a writ of mandamus compelling some eight or nine county auditors, now sitting in this city, as a railroad tax assessment board, to call in railway officials to testify as to the true value of their properties. Johnson declares that the railroads have thus far been assessed at from 12 to 18 per cent of their value, while the smaller property owners in Cleveland have been taxed at the rate of 60 per cent or more. The mayor averred in his petition that the "auditors were corruptly influenced by favors to them by the railroad companies to influence their decision and avoid the making of true and correct appraisal."

The Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling was the railroad under consideration by the auditors. Before the writ was served on the auditors they had assessed the road, although the mayor notified them of the court's action.

The mayor holds, as a result, that the action of the board is illegal, and says he will now ask for an injunction prohibiting the clerk from placing the assessment of the road on record.

SERVICES FOR MRS. GAGE

They Will Be Held This Afternoon, to Be Conducted by Rev. Dr. Hillis.

Chicago, May 22.—The remains of Mrs. Lyman J. Gage arrived from Washington, accompanied by Secretary Gage, his daughter, Mrs. Pierce; Mrs. Gage's sister, Mrs. Hendee, of Yonkers, N. Y.; D. H. Burnham and Rev. N. D. Hillis, who officiated at the funeral services in Washington and who will conduct the rites at the grave.

The funeral party arrived on the Pennsylvania limited, and, transferring to the Northwestern, proceeded to Rose Hill cemetery, where the body was placed in the receiving vault. The services this afternoon will be strictly private.

EX-SOLDIER ACCUSED.

Charged at Manila With Forging Checks and Endorsements.

Manila, May 22.—E. C. Lawrence, formerly a private in the Thirty-third volunteer infantry and afterwards employed as a civilian clerk in the adjutant general's office at Manila, has been accused of forging the signature of Captain Stevens, the insular disbursing officer, to certain checks purporting to be payable to General MacArthur. On the backs of the checks were forged endorsements of General MacArthur to General Shafter and to E. C. Lawrence. Two of these checks of $200 each have been cashed at San Francisco, but another negotiated at St. Louis has been returned to Manila and pronounced spurious by Captain Stevens. Lawrence is suspected of other forgeries.

The insurgents made an unsuccessful attack upon the village of Nacatan, in Laguna province. A private of the Eighth infantry was killed in the engagement.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

It is reported that the promoters of the East Liverpool Board of Trade are discouraged and ready to quit. If that be the case they are very easily discouraged and perhaps will be wise in quitting. It is highly probable that some of them have so much business to attend to that they cannot give board matters proper attention. In that event, they will best serve the interests of the public by resigning and leaving their places to be filled by others who can devote more time and labor to the work. For it is unquestionably work that counts and makes such a body useful.

The new board of trade came into being under favorable conditions and those conditions have not changed materially. It has not lived long enough to determine that it is a failure. It should at least make the effort to show that it is alive. A live board of trade, even if it consists of only a dozen members, can be useful and make its influence felt for the city's good. About two score of names were enrolled at the recent meeting at city hall. That number of men, if they go to work in earnest, is enough to form a working board of trade, supposing no more members could be secured. But more can be secured. Every business man in the city will eagerly and gladly ally himself with an organization that will promote the city's prosperity, if he is convinced that such will be the result of the movement.

If the project of organizing and keeping alive and energetic a vigilant board of trade is suffered to "die a-borning" it will be a humiliating confession of lack of effort, and nothing else. There is enough public spirit in East Liverpool to found such a board and keep it alive, alert and ready for usefulness when the time is ripe, even if it shall appear that there is no work ahead for it just now.

Since the foregoing article was written, it is reported that prospects of a new industry have led the board of trade membership to become more hopeful and energetic. It is to be hoped that something will be accomplished that will demonstrate to East Liverpool, what has long been apparent in other cities, that a working board of trade is about the best institution a live town can have.

FALSEHOODS AFLOAT.

A specimen of the falsehoods set afloat for political purposes—and it is easy to guess by whom they are inspired—was the one which came from California soon after the arrival of Governor Nash and party there. The story was to the effect that the governor and his party were jealous because the president was receiving more attention than they, and that there was "a row in the Ohio family" in consequence. As the News Review stated at the time, the tale was absurd upon its face, and no Ohioan knowing either Governor Nash or President McKinley would credit a word of it. Still it was calculated to do harm, and injure the reputation of the Ohio executive. Perhaps that is why it was telegraphed all over the country. Doubtless some people could be found who are foolish enough to believe that the governor is the sort of man to act like a small boy with a grievance and refuse to play in the same yard with one more conspicuous than he.

The baseless falsehood has at last reached the governor, through the medium of Ohio papers sent on to him, and he is naturally indignant. Not only the governor, but every man in the party accompanying him on the western trip, brands the story as utterly without foundation. They declare that the entire journey has been pleasant and harmonious and that the jealousy and friction alleged to have been so manifest existed only in the mind of some imaginative correspondent. It needed not this denial to convince intelligent people that the tale was untrue, but we are glad it has been made, for the word of the governor and his friends will certainly count for more than that of an anonymous scribbler and character-assassin, even with those who are ready to believe the worst they hear of any public man. Certainly our Democratic brethren are exceedingly short of campaigners and campaign material when they find it necessary to lie in ambush and stab with such puny weapons.

PERPLEXED SCOTCHMEN.

It was said years ago that no one could ever get a joke into a Scotchman's head except by a surgical operation. It now appears that there are other things besides jokes which the Scotch mind finds it difficult to grasp and comprehend. For instance, the Scots don't know what to make of their one-time countryman, Andrew Carnegie. They can understand that he is wealthy—wealthier, doubtless, than any other Scotchman ever was since the world began—but they cannot understand his desire to give his wealth away. Hence his gift of $10,000,000 to the universities of Scotland perplexes them sorely. They never got anything like it before and it upsets all their calculations. They scratch their heads in bewilderment at the vastness of the gift and even wonder whether they ought to accept it.

Higher education has been difficult to obtain in Scotland and the paths leading to the universities open to comparatively few. The Scotchmen fear Carnegie will make learning cheap and common. They may even have to enlarge their universities. And university education will come so near being free that the people will be demanding that secondary education be free also. It would cost money to grant such a demand, and the Scotchman hates to part with his "siller." Hence, unless a mathematical calculation demonstrates to him that it would be both economical and wise to accept Carnegie's gift, it is likely to be declined.

The laird of Skibo might have selected four or even 400 educational institutions in America, among which to divide $10,000,000, and not one of them would have thought of doing anything but accepting and asking for more. It must surprise him to see his countrymen hesitate. But their deliberation will not worry him, as he doubtless knows where gifts of millions of round American dollars would be acceptable, even if they are not so in Scotland.

Ex-Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, of Maine, is dead. He was an able man and a good Republican. The esteem in which he was held by his constituents was demonstrated when they elected him to congress the last time, knowing full well that he was too ill to serve. Maine voters stand by their representatives who serve them well. That is one reason why they always have conspicuous men in congress.

The last cable car in New York is to be taken off the line this week. Just as the cable car was in improvement over the horse car, the whizzing trolley car is an improvement over it. It is quite possible some of us may live to see the electric vehicle replaced by something better.

If the Texas oil field keeps on extending and attracting northerners the political complexion of the Lone Star state is likely to undergo a speedy change. Oil men are live men and consequently Republicans by a large majority.

The machinists' strike is not cutting a striking figure. It bids fair to be all over before half the people are aware that it happened. The country is too busy to engage in protracted labor wars.

OBITUARY

James Marion.

WELLSVILLE

DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL

Given at the Home of T. R. Andrews in Wellsville Last Evening.

A delightful entertainment was presented last night at the home of T. R. Andrews on Main street by Misses Andrews and Lillian Baron, assisted by Misses Goldie Weaver and Sophie James and Messrs Will Fulton and Walter Burnett and Prof. Laughlin. The rooms were artistically decorated.

A Faust waltz by Miss Brooke, a superb vocal selection by Rev. W. M. Fulton, of Beaver; songs by Miss Lillian Baron, Walter Burnett and Miss Lida Andrews and a solo by Prof. Laughlin were features. The music was excellent, and an enjoyable social followed.

YARD MASTERS' MEETING

Wellsville Men Prominent in a Session at Alliance.

The yardmasters of the C. & P. division of the Pennsylvania railway system, met in Alliance yesterday in quarterly session. The meeting was held in a passenger coach on track No. 7 in the Alliance yards. Fourteen yardmasters were present when the meeting was called to order by Trainmaster F. Heller, of Wellsville. Assistant Trainmasters J. C. Keck and H. Sterret, of Wellsville, were also in attendance.

The meeting was an interesting and profitable one. Matters pertaining to the handling of trains were discussed in detail. Short addresses were made and impromptu talks on topics of importance.

WELLSVILLE NOTES.

Richard McSweeney went to Pittsburgh today.

Miss Lena Lowry went home from school yesterday, sick.

Robert Lichtenberger, of Bellaire, was in town last night.

Clyde Noble, of Irondale, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Mrs. George McClean entertained a few of her lady friends at dinner last night.

The King's Daughters of the First Presbyterian church had a meeting last night.

Robert Green, now on the police force in Alliance, was here between trains yesterday.

The yellowware pottery is shut down today because of the funeral of Engineer Herbert's nephew.

The bowling match between the Ramblers and Crescents was called off last night. Tonight the Imperials will meet the Eclipse.

Making It Rather Personal.

This is credited as one of General Lew Wallace's Turkish jokes: There lived in Stamboul, Turkey, a well to do Turk named Ismail Ismail Hassam. He was endowed with oriental wit that stood him well in hand when he was in a tight place. A neighbor called on Ismail one day and wanted to borrow his donkey to use an hour. Ismail made a low salaam and said:

"Neighbor, I am sorry, but my boy started on the donkey an hour ago to Scutari. By now he is gayly trotting over the hills far from the sacred precincts of Stamboul."

Just as Ismail finished his speech a donkey's loud bray was heard in the stable, which was under the same roof as Ismail's house, but in the rear. The neighbor said:

"Ah, I hear your donkey bray."

Ismail protested that his neighbor's ears were deceived and that the noise was not a donkey's bray. Then the donkey, which was supposed to be jogging along toward Scutari, brayed twice loudly. It was too much, and the neighbor cried:

"Oh, that is your donkey, Ismail. Allah help me. I can now borrow him."

Then Ismail said:

"Which do you believe is lying, the donkey or me?"

Why Spiders Are Not Insects.

The spider is not an insect, though probably nine people out of ten would class it under this term. With scorpions and mites spiders form a class in the animal kingdom known as Arachnida. This name is derived from a mythical personage called Arachne, the daughter of a purple dyer of Lydia, who was fabled to have challenged Minerva to a trial of skill in spinning. So indignant was the goddess at this act of boldness that she forthwith transformed the hapless challenger into a spider, presumably in order that she might have the best possible opportunity of practicing the art on which she prided herself so much.

Spiders differ from insects in five main particulars. Their eyes are simple instead of compound, they have eight legs in place of six, they do not pass through the metamorphoses which are characteristic of insects, they have no antennae and their breathing is accomplished by means of organs which combine the functions of lungs and gills. Instead of by tubes pervading their bodies. These points of distinction are sufficient to determine the fact that it is impossible to class spiders as insects.

Like a Man.

Soon after the conscript law was passed by the Confederate congress Captain Slack was appointed enrolling officer for the parish of Claiborne, with orders to have its provisions duly executed. His manner of execution was the reverse of that suggested by his name and created a lively sensation among the "bomb proofs," who, finding the pointed arguments of his muskets irresistible, moved rapidly and in a right line toward the front. Not long after his arrival my sister had occasion to visit an old lady whose son was notoriously of the peace persuasion. She soon missed his familiar presence, and the following conversation occurred:

"Mrs. —, where is John?"
"Gone to fight for his country, child."
"Indeed. I thought he was one of the exempts."

"Lo', honey, Caplin Slack don't know no exempts. The other day I see his men a-gallop down the road. I hollered to John they war comin and told him the chimney was a good place. 'Twasn't no use, though, for they found him quicker than a cat does a mouse.'"
"Well, Mrs. —, what did John do?"
"Do? Why, he came down and 'list-ed like a man."—Lost Cause.

The Pope's Official Rings.

The pope has three special rings for his use. The first is generally rather a plain gold one, with an intaglio or cameo ornament. This is called the papal ring. The second one, called the pontifical ring, because used only when the pope pontificates or officiates at grand ceremonies, is an exceedingly precious one. The one worn on these occasions by Pius IX was made during the reign of Pius VII, whose name is cut on the inside. It is of the purest gold, of remarkably fine workmanship, set with a very large oblong diamond. It cost 30,000 francs (£1,250) and has a contrivance on the inside by which it can be made larger or smaller to fit the wearer's finger.

The fisherman's ring, so called because it has a figure of St. Peter in a bark throwing his net into the sea, is a plain gold ring with an oval face, bearing the name of the reigning pope engraved round and above the figure of the apostle. The ring weighs 1½ ounces. It was first a private and not an official ring, though it has been used in the latter way since the fifteenth century and is now the official seal of the popes and the first among the regius.—Golden Penny.

The Yaws.

On the west coast of Africa the natives call the raspberry a yaw. It happens that one of the pleasing diseases that come out from that quarter of the globe is characterized by dusky red spots that appear on the body and soon grow into ulcers about the size and looks of the raspberry. So this disease is called the yaws. It is contagious and downright disagreeable. White sailors bring it back with them to their own discomfort and the disgust of those at home. Yaws prevails also in the Fiji Islands and in Samoa, but in these two places children mainly are attacked, and the natives regard the disease in the same light as civilized persons look at measles—almost a certainty to have and the sooner over with the better.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

It is reported that the promoters of the East Liverpool Board of Trade are discouraged and ready to quit. If that be the case they are very easily discouraged and perhaps will be wise in quitting. It is highly probable that some of them have so much business to attend to that they cannot give board matters proper attention. In that event, they will best serve the interests of the public by resigning and leaving their places to be filled by others who can devote more time and labor to the work. For it is unquestionably work that counts and makes such a body useful.

The new board of trade came into being under favorable conditions and those conditions have not changed materially. It has not lived long enough to determine that it is a failure. It should at least make the effort to show that it is alive. A live board of trade, even if it consists of only a dozen members, can be useful and make its influence felt for the city's good. About two score of names were enrolled at the recent meeting at city hall. That number of men, if they go to work in earnest, is enough to form a working board of trade, supposing no more members could be secured. But more can be secured. Every business man in the city will eagerly and gladly ally himself with an organization that will promote the city's prosperity, if he is convinced that such will be the result of the movement.

If the project of organizing and keeping alive and energetic a vigilant board of trade is suffered to "die a-borning" it will be a humiliating confession of lack of effort, and nothing else. There is enough public spirit in East Liverpool to found such a board and keep it alive, alert and ready for usefulness when the time is ripe, even if it shall appear that there is no work ahead for it just now.

Since the foregoing article was written, it is reported that prospects of a new industry have led the board of trade membership to become more hopeful and energetic. It is to be hoped that something will be accomplished that will demonstrate to East Liverpool, what has long been apparent in other cities, that a working board of trade is about the best institution a live town can have.

FALSEHOODS AFLOAT.

A specimen of the falsehoods set afloat for political purposes—and it is easy to guess by whom they are inspired—was the one which came from California soon after the arrival of Governor Nash and party there. The story was to the effect that the governor and his party were jealous because the president was receiving more attention than they, and that there was "a row in the Ohio family" in consequence. As the News Review stated at the time, the tale was absurd upon its face, and no Ohioan knowing either Governor Nash or President McKinley would credit a word of it. Still it was calculated to do harm, and injure the reputation of the Ohio executive. Perhaps that is why it was telegraphed all over the country. Doubtless some people could be found who are foolish enough to believe that the governor is the sort of man to act like a small boy with a grievance and refuse to play in the same yard with one more conspicuous than he.

western trip, brands the story as utterly without foundation. They declare that the entire journey has been pleasant and harmonious and that the jealousy and friction alleged to have been so manifest existed only in the mind of some imaginative correspondent. It needed not this denial to convince intelligent people that the tale was untrue, but we are glad it has been made, for the word of the governor and his friends will certainly count for more than that of an anonymous scribbler and character-assassin, even with those who are ready to believe the worst they hear of any public man. Certainly our Democratic brethren are exceedingly short of campaigners and campaign material when they find it necessary to lie in ambush and stab with such puny weapons.

PERPLEXED SCOTCHMEN.

It was said years ago that no one could ever get a joke into a Scotchman's head except by a surgical operation. It now appears that there are other things besides jokes which the Scotch mind finds it difficult to grasp and comprehend. For instance, the Scots don't know what to make of their one-time countryman, Andrew Carnegie. They can understand that he is wealthy—wealthier, doubtless, than any other Scotchman ever was since the world began—but they cannot understand his desire to give his wealth away. Hence his gift of $10,000,000 to the universities of Scotland perplexes them sorely. They never got anything like it before and it upsets all their calculations. They scratch their heads in bewilderment at the vastness of the gift and even wonder whether they ought to accept it.

Higher education has been difficult to obtain in Scotland and the paths leading to the universities open to comparatively few. The Scotchmen fear Carnegie will make learning cheap and common. They may even have to enlarge their universities. And university education will come so near being free that the people will be demanding that secondary education be free also. It would cost money to grant such a demand, and the Scotchman hates to part with his "siller." Hence, unless a mathematical calculation demonstrates to him that it would be both economical and wise to accept Carnegie's gift, it is likely to be declined.

The laird of Skibo might have selected four or even 400 educational institutions in America, among which to divide $10,000,000, and not one of them would have thought of doing anything but accepting and asking for more. It must surprise him to see his countrymen hesitate. But their deliberation will not worry him, as he doubtless knows where gifts of millions of round American dollars would be acceptable, even if they are not so in Scotland.

Ex-Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, of Maine, is dead. He was an able man and a good Republican. The esteem in which he was held by his constituents was demonstrated when they elected him to congress the last time, knowing full well that he was too ill to serve. Maine voters stand by their representatives who serve them well. That is one reason why they always have conspicuous men in congress.

The last cable car in New York is to be taken off the line this week. Just as the cable car was in improvement over the horse car, the whizzing trolley car is an improvement over it. It is quite possible some of us may live to see the electric vehicle replaced by something better.

If the Texas oil field keeps on extending and attracting northerners the political complexion of the Lone Star state is likely to undergo a speedy change. Oil men are live men and consequently Republicans by a large majority.

The machinists' strike is not cutting a striking figure. It bids fair to be all over before half the people are aware that it happened. The country is too busy to engage in protracted labor wars.

A delightful entertainment was presented last night at the home of T. R. Andrews on Main street by Misses Andrews and Lillian Baron, assisted by Misses Goldie Weaver and Sophie James and Messrs Will Fulton and Walter Burnett and Prof. Laughlin. The rooms were artistically decorated.

A Faust waltz by Miss Brooke, a superb vocal selection by Rev. W. M. Fulton, of Beaver; songs by Miss Lillian Baron, Walter Burnett and Miss Lida Andrews and a solo by Prof. Laughlin were features. The music was excellent, and an enjoyable social followed.

YARD MASTERS' MEETING

Wellsville Men Prominent in a Session at Alliance.

The yardmasters of the C. & P. division of the Pennsylvania railway system, met in Alliance yesterday in quarterly session. The meeting was held in a passenger coach on track No. 7 in the Alliance yards. Fourteen yardmasters were present when the meeting was called to order by Trainmaster F. Heller, of Wellsville. Assistant Trainmasters J. C. Keck and H. Sterret, of Wellsville, were also in attendance.

The meeting was an interesting and profitable one. Matters pertaining to the handling of trains were discussed in detail. Short addresses were made and impromptu talks on topics of importance.

WELLSVILLE NOTES.

The bowling match between the Ramblers and Crescents was called off last night. Tonight the Imperials will meet the Eclipse.

Making It Rather Personal.

This is credited as one of General Lew Wallace's Turkish jokes: There lived in Stamboul, Turkey, a well to do Turk named Ismail Ismail Hassam. He was endowed with oriental wit that stood him well in hand when he was in a tight place. A neighbor called on Ismail one day and wanted to borrow his donkey to use an hour. Ismail made a low salaam and said:

"Neighbor, I am sorry, but my boy started on the donkey an hour ago to Scutari. By now he is gayly trotting over the hills far from the sacred precincts of Stamboul."

Just as Ismail finished his speech a donkey's loud bray was heard in the stable, which was under the same roof as Ismail's house, but in the rear. The neighbor said:

"Ah, I hear your donkey bray."

Ismail protested that his neighbor's ears were deceived and that the noise was not a donkey's bray. Then the donkey, which was supposed to be jogging along toward Scutari, brayed twice loudly. It was too much, and the neighbor cried:

"Oh, that is your donkey, Ismail. Allah help me. I can now borrow him."

Then Ismail said:

"Which do you believe is lying, the donkey or me?"

WADLY MIXED MATTERS

TOWN OFFICERS OF CHESTER HAVE THEIR TROUBLES.

Met Repeatedly to Be Sworn And Must Do So Again.

The first officers of the town of Chester have mixed things up in a very unpleasant manner. The present status of affairs seems to indicate that the newly chosen officers will have a battle on among themselves before they are all installed. Expressions of displeasure from the citizens are heard.

Following the usual custom the officers say that, out of courtesy to the mayor, they had been waiting two weeks for Mayor Dunn to arrive in order that he might administer the oath to them. Monday they met for the third time at Justice Johnston's office, where it had been agreed that the installation would take place, but the mayor failed to appear. They waited there until 10 o'clock. Yesterday afternoon they were informed that Mayor Dunn qualified at about 9 o'clock Monday night at the home of Erastus Marshall, who is a notary public.

Today the councilmen received notice to assemble at John Marshall's stand tonight, where Erastus Marshall would administer the oath of office. George A. Arner had already qualified before leaving town Monday morning, and as soon as the notice was received Joseph N. Finley went to acquire Johnston's office and was sworn in. Other councilmen say they will do likewise and the proposed tonight bids fair to be another success.

One of the councilmen state that if the mayor fails to meet with them they will qualify and make the appointments without him.

BEEN OPTIONED BY AL McDONALD, OF CHESTER.

Parties Making Tests in the Holiday's Cove District.

McDonald, of Chester, has just had options for several thousand acres of coal land in Hancock county. The land had nearly all been under options which expired in the last few days. Before the old company had time to renew the options Mr. McDonald has leased the territory for his company.

Tests are now being made in the Holiday's Cove district, on which the options had been taken by Mr. McDonald, of Florence, Pa. A number of test holes will be drilled on these lands.

Thomas Campbell holds options on 100 acres in another portion of the county. They expire in August. They were taken at the rate of $18 per acre, half of which was to be paid in cash, or they cease conditionally at that time.

MINERS ARE STRIKING

at the Marquette Coal Works At New Cumberland.

The miners at the Marquette Coal company's mines at New Cumberland went out on a strike for higher wages. Monday a number of Italians who were brought to New Cumberland to work refused to stay when they learned the condition of affairs and all left at noon yesterday. Nearly a hundred miners are affected by the strike.

WILD CAT WELL

Operations Begun on the Baxter Farm, Near Fairview.

McCoy Bros. begun work today on a wild cat well on the Lawrence Baxter farm near Fairview. The Blazier well, which was delayed several weeks by a shortage of casing, is expected in a few days.

It was predicted that this well would be a 50-barrel producer, but so far there are no signs of oil.

CHESTER AND VICINITY.

Roy Swearingen, of Poe, Pa., was among Chester friends today.

William Metz, of Gavers, O., has accepted a position at Allison grocery store.

Rev. Mr. Phipps, of New Castle, Pa., is visiting his son, Rev. Charles E. Phipps.

Mrs. Samuel Allison has returned from a short visit to her sister, Mrs. J. Glass, near Fairview.

Mrs. Susan Melvin, widow of the late Henry Melvin, died at her home in New Cumberland, Monday, after a brief illness, aged 63.

Ed Jones, who was formerly employed by T. B. Murphy, has accepted a position with C. M. Smith as manager of the cafe at the Rock Springs park.

Eight plants at New Cumberland paid out $20,000 Saturday, and there were lively times. Three men were put on the police force for extra police duty.

Hugh Sutherland, foreman in the Marquette coal bank, at New Cumberland, had his arm broken last week. Mr. Sutherland states that this is the fifth time he has had the same arm broken.

JAMES M'DOLE HAS SUDDENLY GONE BLIND.

First One Eye Failed and Then the Other—A Specialist Now Treating Him.

James McDole, of May street, is totally blind. His case is a most peculiar one. Mr. McDole is nearly seventy years of age, but only a few days ago he could see as well as he ever did in his life. The other day he picked up a newspaper and started to read. He noticed that he couldn't see apparently as well as usual. Incidentally he closed his left eye, when he discovered that he could see nothing whatever with his right eye.

Although he has worn glasses for a number of years he never before had any symptoms of blindness, and the discovery came as a great shock. Fate was destined to treat the aged man even more cruelly still and on the next day the sight in the other eye faded out. For the last four days he has been in total darkness. During that time, however, Mr. McDole has made three trips to Pittsburg where he is being treated by the famous eye specialist, Dr. Lippincott, who believes that his sight can be restored. Mr. McDole is well known in this city, having resided on May street for more than 12 years. He has the sympathy of a large number of friends.

PATRIOTIC CHURCHMEN

BURST OF ENTHUSIASM IN PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Philadelphia, May 22.—The commissioners to the Presbyterian general assembly Tuesday gave vent to a spontaneous burst of patriotic enthusiasm, which found voice in the hearty rendition of a national anthem. It was a fitting conclusion to a masterly address delivered by Rev. Dr. Charles O. Thompson, secretary of the home mission board. The report of the committee on home missions had been read and Dr. Thompson arose to make the usual appeal for aid, which developed into an oration and aroused the assembly to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

A statement in the committee's report that over 3,000 churches failed to give directly to the home mission board aroused the ire of the commissioners representing self-supporting synods and presbyteries, and after a brief but lively debate the objectionable paragraph was eliminated. Rev. Dr. Hugh K. Walker, chairman of the committee, in discussing the report, declared that unless the church supported its home missions the foreign missions would fail. The report urged congress to act on the anti-polygamy amendment to the constitution before the Mormons secure the balance of political power in any additional states. Both morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to routine business.

The woman's board of home missions met in the Witherspoon building and elected the old board of officers. Besides these, a vice president was elected from each of the several states of the union.

A meeting was held last night at the Academy of Music in the interest of the board of home missions. The speakers were Rev. H. R. Marsh, Point Barrows, Alaska; Rev. Dr. S. Hale Young, Alaska; Rev. James Hayes, Kamiah, Idaho; Rev. Dr. W. S. Holt, Portland, Ore.; Rev. Dr. Thomas D. Logan, Springfield, Ill.; Rev. Dr. J. Milton Green, San Juan, Porto Rico.

Prohibitive Tax Bill May Come Up For Passage in Pennsylvania House.

Harrisburg, May 22.—Among other proceedings Tuesday, in the house, the bill resolution proposing to amend the constitution by striking out the word fifty in section 16, article 2, thus providing for a variable number of senatorial districts, as in the house of representatives, passed finally.

The bill amending the Brooks high license law to prohibit the sale or gift of wines, ales, beer or liquor to females, to be taken from the premises, was defeated.

The bill for the prevention of idleness passed finally.

The house last night, by a vote of 84 by 83, adopted a motion offered by Mr. Bliss, of Delaware, to lay on the table the Creasy concurrent resolution to adjourn finally on June 14.

Mr. Bliss reported from the rules committee a resolution, which was adopted, making a special order for the Fox capitol bill. The measure may be taken up next Tuesday for second reading and the following day on third reading and final passage.

The senate committee on finance gave another public hearing Tuesday afternoon on the house bill known as the company store bill, which places a prohibitive tax on all orders, checks or other paper representing wages of employees, and the committee afterward decided to report the bill favorably to the senate with a few amendments. The amendments will not affect the original purpose of the bill. Unless the progress is impeded the measure may come up for final passage next week.

The consideration of bills on the general calendar was the order of business in the senate last night, but no bills on third reading were taken up. An effort will be made to clear the calendar today, after which the senate probably will adjourn for the week.

The company store bill, which has passed the house, was reported favorably by the finance committee.

United Brethren Ministers Not Allowed to Use It—Conference Adjourned.

Frederick, Md., May 22.—The general quadrennial conference of the United Brethren Church in Christ, which has been in session here since May 9, adjourned last evening, to meet in Topeka, Kan., in 1905.

Tuesday's business sessions were presided over by Bishops Kephart and Mills.

The special orders of the day were the apportionment of the number of delegates to the quadrennial conferences and the arrangement of the annual conferences over which the bishops preside. These evoked much animated discussion, as there were five bases of representation before the body. Rev. R. H. Turner's basis was finally adopted, as follows:

"All conferences having less than 1,000 members shall be entitled to one lay and one ministerial delegate; 1,000 and less than 3,000, two lay and two ministerial delegates; 3,000 and less than 6,000, three lay and three ministerial delegates; 6,000 and less than 10,000, four lay and four ministerial delegates; 10,000 and less than 15,000, five lay and five ministerial delegates; 15,000 and less than 20,000, six lay and six ministerial delegates, and all over 20,000, seven lay and seven ministerial delegates."

After a warm discussion an amendment was adopted to the church discipline to the effect that hereafter no minister of the church shall be allowed to use tobacco in any form, and those who are now addicted to its use must desist.

In the Apostles Creed the word "hell" was modified and will in future be rendered "hades."

Rev. W. McKee was elected to the new office of general secretary.

BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES

Some Time Devoted to the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society.

Springfield, Mass., May 22.—The second day's sessions of the May anniversaries of the Baptist church opened Tuesday with a meeting devoted to the Women's Baptist Home Mission society, at which Mrs. J. N. Crouse presided.

The address of welcome was delivered by the Rev. George W. Quick, pastor of the Highland church, in which the meetings are being held. Mrs. Crouse responded on behalf of the society. A number of papers were read.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. A. H. Barber, treasurer of the society. It showed a deficit for the year. In the afternoon Mrs. J. M. Crouse delivered the president's address. This was followed by addresses from missionaries.

BADLY MIXED MATTERS

TOWN OFFICERS OF CHESTER HAVE THEIR TROUBLES.

We Met Repeatedly to Be Sworn And Must Do So Again.

The first officers of the town of Chester have mixed things up in a very unpleasant manner. The present status of affairs seems to indicate a battle on among themselves before they are all installed. Expressions of displeasure from the citizens are heard.

Following the usual custom the officers say that, out of courtesy to the mayor, they had been waiting two weeks for Mayor Dunn to signify in order that he might administer the oath to them. Monday at they met for the third time at Justice Johnston's office, where it had been agreed that the installation should take place, but the mayor failed to appear. They waited there 10 o'clock. Yesterday afternoon they were informed that Mayor Dunn qualified at about 9 o'clock Monday night at the home of Erastus Marshall, who is a notary public.

Today the councilmen received notice to assemble at John Marshall's stand tonight, where Erastus Marshall would administer the oath of office. George A. Arner had already qualified before leaving town Monday morning, and as soon as the notice received Joseph N. Finley went to Justice Johnston's office and was inquired. Other councilmen say they do likewise and the proposed tonight bids fair to be another scene.

One of the councilmen state that the mayor fails to meet with them and they will qualify and make the appointments without him.

BRADDOCK COAL LANDS

BEEN OPTIONED BY AL MCDONALD, OF CHESTER.

Parties Making Tests in the Holiday's Cove District.

McDonald, of Chester, has just secured options for several thousand acres of coal land in Hancock county. The land had nearly all been under options which expired in the last few days. Before the old company had time to renew the options Mr. McDonald has leased the territory for his company.

Tests are now being made in the Holiday's Cove district, on which the options had been taken by Mr. McDonald, of Florence, Pa. A number of test holes will be drilled on these lands.

Thomas Campbell holds options on 100 acres in another portion of the county. They expire in August. They were taken at the rate of $18 per acre, half of which was to be paid in cash, or they cease conditionally at that time.

MINERS ARE STRIKING

at the Marquette Coal Works At New Cumberland.

The miners at the Marquette Coal company's mines at New Cumberland went out on a strike for higher wages. ## SOON TO START HOME

Mrs. McKinley's Condition Continues to Improve.

SCHOOL CHILDREN REVIEWED

President Greeted by the Little Ones and Made a Brief Speech—Later Visited the Presidio—Interrupted Program May Be Concluded.

San Francisco, May 22.—The convalescence of Mrs. McKinley is very rapid and she is fast regaining her normal strength. She was able to sit up Tuesday and read the papers. So marked was her improvement that it is very probable the presidential party will start for Washington next Saturday. If no untoward developments should occur it is thought that Mrs. McKinley will be able to endure the journey by that time.

San Francisco, May 21.—Mrs. McKinley passed a very good afternoon and the president was very cheerful over the improved condition.

President McKinley reviewed nearly 50,000 school children of this city. Both sides of Van Ness avenue, from Jackson to Market streets, were lined with cheering and enthusiastic children as the president and members of his party and local officials in carriages were driven from Jackson to Market and back the avenue to Jackson. The president was the recipient of a continuous ovation. Almost every child had been provided with a good-sized American flag, and their voices and flags were worked in unison. Each little girl wore white and most of them had red sashes. Thousands of the youngsters had gathered large bouquets, which they threw at the president as he passed along.

In some cases every pupil from a certain school carried a bouquet of the same variety and color of flowers. Some classes spread the flowers in the street, that the president and his party might literally ride among the roses.

About half way between California and Sacramento streets the president's carriage brought up and the other conveyances came to a standstill.

"Speech, speech, speech," rang out along the avenue, and the children swarmed about by the thousands. President McKinley sat in his carriage, reaching down and shaking their hands for several minutes. He finally rose and was greeted with cheers. The president then spoke briefly.

After reviewing the school children President McKinley and party drove to the Presidio.

General Shafter and members of his staff were on hand to welcome the commander-in-chief, and he was escorted about the grounds and shown the camps where thousands of volunteers going to and coming from the Philippines have been quartered, as well as the camps of the regulars.

If no unforeseen circumstances prevent the president tomorrow will attend the reception by the Knights Templar of California. The reception will be preceded by a parade of the Knights in full uniform as an escort to the president. Other features of the original program will be carried out during the president's stay. If Mrs. McKinley continues to improve.

COL. MILLS SUSTAINED.

Five West Point Cadets to Be Dismissed and Six Suspended.

Washington, May 22.—Secretary Root approved the action of the board of officers at West Point, which recommended the dismissal of five cadets and the suspension of six others. This sustains the course of Colonel Mills and the other officers in the recent disturbances at the academy.

The names of the cadets dismissed and suspended will be announced at the military academy about noon today.

Colonel Mills, superintendent of the military academy, had a long consultation with the secretary of war relative to recent disorders. The papers in the cases of the cadets who have been tried for offenses against the authorities have been in the department for some time, but have never been acted upon. Superintendent Mills explained the condition at the academy, insisting that many of the published reports were exaggerated. The present difficulty grew out of the attempt to suppress hazing and the restrictions that have been made in this direction since Colonel Mills became superintendent.

Explosion in a Bank.

Cambridge, Mass., May 22.—What the police believe was a daring attempt to rob the Cambridgeport National bank of this city, by the use of dynamite in broad daylight, was revealed at 10:45 a. m. by an explosion in the bank, which blew out the side of the building and in which Cashier William F. Roaf sustained a bad wound on the head.

Practically Approved the Budget.

London, May 22.—The house of commons, by 300 to 123 votes, rejected the motion of Sir Henry Fowler, Liberal, which was supported by the Liberal leaders, disapproving the budget proposals. Mr. Balfour, the government leader, announced that the government would regard the adoption of the motion as a vote of non-confidence. The Irish abstained from voting.

Schley Hurried to Sick Son.

New York, May 22.—Rear Admiral W. S. Schley arrived here on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, having hurried across the ocean on receipt of news that his son, Dr. Winfield Scott Schley, was ill. Dr. Schley, who has been suffering from blood poisoning at St. Luke's hospital, was reported to be out of danger.

BASEBALL

Now that the eastern and western teams of both the National and American leagues have come together in their initial intersectional clash it will be easy for the critics to determine with more accuracy the respective strength of the different teams.

In the American league George Stalling's Wolverine husters have certainly set a lively pace and have played exceptionally good baseball. Stalling cut his eye teeth in baseball many years ago, and only for a trivial misunderstanding between himself and the powers that be in Brooklyn he might be the manager of the League champions today.

Stalling and Ebbets did not look through the same style of baseball spectacles. The result was that George went west to grow up with the country. It is needless to mention that he has kept pace with the development of the country, and his early experience in the east and south is standing him in good stead these days.

Yet what a difference there is in the make up of the Wolverine team of today and the leather cracking team of a dozen years or more ago! In those days a slugger was the only real requisite, while Stalling's aggregation now is a well rounded one, with every man on the team capable of playing scientific ball in all that the term implies.

In Casey, Holmes and Gleason Detroit has a trio of old eastern favorites capable of doing excellent work. While Casey is not much bigger than a rabbit, this keeps him close to the ground, and he is not likely to take mental balloon ascensions, which happens so frequently to the average ball player when he finds himself in a tight place.

And, talking about those soaring flights and partial unconsciousness as to what is happening, I think that St. Seymour, now doing outfielding service at Washington, is about the worst sample ever seen on the diamond. If Seymour could keep his feet on the ground and his head between his shoulders instead of in the clouds, he could pitch ball today with any of them.

Of the other ex-League stars who are now doing splendid service for the newer organization none of them is making a better record than the veteran pitchers. Of course Lajole at Philadelphia is a whole team in himself, and if there has been a better all around player on the field in the last few years I have failed to notice him. He was cast in the baseball mold, and handling the bat and ball comes as natural to "Nap" as watermelons to the appetite of the southern picaninny.

Little Keeler of Brooklyn is another natural ball player, and George Davis, the captain-manager of the New York team, is another. They simply love to play the game and would not be happy if divorced from it.

Years of close study of the game show that players of this sort are most valuable aids to the club owners. The player who goes into the game as the average man goes to his daily labor, simply because he has to do it to gain the necessities and luxuries of life, doesn't, as a general rule, last very long. There are few tasks harder for a man than the playing of baseball for a living and yet having a dislike for the game. Fortunately players of this sort are few and far between.

There were few more studious players than the veteran James O'Rourke. Nearly every minute of his time when not given to baseball and repose he spent with his books. He had a book or paper in his hands most of the time when not on the diamond. They say that young O'Rourke, his son, who is playing on the Yale team, is a chip of the old block. The youngster in the games he has played this year shows many tricks of the trade seldom found at the disposal of the average young college player.

It is pleasing to note this year that the umpires are showing more backbone than they did last season. This applies to the larger as well as to the smaller leagues. That the umpire is the absolute ruler of the game has been one of the hardest baseball lessons to learn. That he has not been sustained heretofore is due entirely to the weak-kneed policy of the club owners which seeks the advancement of the standing of their own teams in preference to the actual welfare of the game.

The umpire should be sustained and encouraged by the public and club owners until he has shown that he is incompetent. When this occurs, let him go.

The old time rivalry between the New York and Brooklyn teams has broken out afresh after years of quiet. Brooklyn rubbed it into New York so hard for several years that there was little interest when the two teams met.

Now it is a good thing that a river separates the players and enthusiasts of the two teams. It does not now require much talk to start a conflagration when a New York and Brooklyn crank come together.

The recent forfeit game to New York by Brooklyn was unfortunate, as it only served to make the feeling more keen between them. There is little doubt that Keeler scored the winning run in that ninth inning and that Hank O'Day, the umpire, did not see it, as his attention was directed toward third base, where the play to retire Daly was made. It will require only two or three disagreements of this sort to start a riot some day, and, as baseball is just picking up again in New York, a disgraceful outbreak would injure the game beyond repair.

Manager Davis has brought out two new players this season who give more or less promise. Matthewson, the young college man, has pitched about the best ball in the country to date. He is as strong as a bull, a good all around athlete, and he has more speed and better control than any other young player of his experience I ever saw.

His delivery is easy and graceful, and he is as fresh and has the same speed at the end of the game that he had in the first inning. His comrades think him the find of recent years, and when he goes into the box the team counts the game as good as won.

Confidence of that sort wins many a baseball battle. Nelson, the second base man, whose name is really Kellogg, does not seem to have as good a chance to make a record. He is a little chap, a bundle of nerves. This fear or stage fright may wear off in time, and if it does Nelson may turn out to be an acceptable successor to Kid Gleason.

Matthewson is another college player who has illustrated the fallacy of the old saying that college men can field all right, but that as batsmen and pitchers they cannot stand fast company. There are few veteran professionals in the business today who can give any points to Matthewson, either on nerve or ability to pitch and to hit the ball. GEORGE E. STACKHOUSE.

Now that Jacob Schaefer has returned to this country from abroad the billiard fraternity will have an opportunity to see the famous expert perform some of the new shots that he evolved while in Europe. Schaefer's visit on the continent was very successful. While in Paris he found a large number of foreign cue manipulators who imagined that they knew something about caroms, mases and "round the table" maneuvers. They proved "easy meat" for the "wizard," and their golden shekels will help materially in paying the crack billiardist's household expenses. Schaefer is now in Chicago. He will busy himself with the planning of his summer campaign in the United States.

JACOB SCHAEFER, THE "WIZARD."

The "wizard" wants, first, to play a match against his former rival, George Slosson. When in New York, Schaefer said:

"I should like to get a series of games with Slosson. He won't play, however. He is in business, and there is more money for him in his billiard room than in matches."

While abroad Schaefer defeated Androan, the Hungarian champion, after giving him 200 in 500 points. He performed sensationally in the Academie Americaine, Paris, making a world's top notch record by running 16 points in three cushion caroms against the Frenchman, Barutel. At the 18 inch balk game Schaefer ran 281 buttons.

Champion Whitman to Play. Malcolm D. Whitman, the national lawn tennis champion, has given notice of his intention of playing on the American team in the international matches if selected. He will begin practice at once.

Wedding at West Beaver.

The foremost social even at West Beaver last Thursday was the marriage of Miss Sue Todd, a popular society leader, to Mr. Thomas Huston, of Calcutta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Calcutta, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Todd, in the presence of 42 of the most intimate friends of the young couple.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent headaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from the ills which Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899.

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

PORTER IS DEAD

Veteran Fighter Expired in

BEEN ILL OF DIABETES

ers Sent to Gen. Brooke to Cooperate With Gen. Webb in Arranging a Military Funeral—Old Controversy Recalled.

New York, May 22.—General Fitz Porter, the veteran fighter, died in Morristown, N. J. For a week he had been very ill with diabetes. At General Porter's death was a photograph to Washington and this. Orders were sent to General James R. Brooke to co-operate with General Alexander S. Webb in arranging a military funeral for the dead general. Up to four years ago General Porter was a conspicuous figure in New York city. Although past 70 he was straight as an Indian and a strikingly military looking person. His brilliant military career was marred by his being cashiered from the army for his action at the second battle of Bull Run. He was honorably reinstated about 23 years afterward. Discussion of the Porter incident raged for years, and the leading generals of the war were divided over it. General John Pope made the charges against General Porter, which were sustained by orders. A court martial sustained the charges. It was General Grant himself who finally, after a long investigation, publicly honored General Porter.

TO KEEP CHINA INTACT

Proposed Nations Agree Not to Seize Territory, if Indemnity Is Defaulted.

Washington, May 22.—The state department has been made fully acquainted by Mr. Rockhill with the character of the propositions relative to the floating of the indemnity loan unfolded at Peking. While grave objections are perceived to the Russian project for a joint guarantee of the loan, because of the immense difficulty of securing the assent of congress to an agreement which would entangle the United States with foreign nations for more than a quarter of a century at the least, there is nothing in Mr. Rockhill's instructions that would cause him to antagonize the proposition, provided it is fully developed so as to secure the safety of the loan, while assuring the integrity of China. It is suggested that these objections can best be secured by authorizing China to deliver to each nation bonds bearing 4 per cent interest to the face value of that nation's indemnity claim. The nation holding the bonds could dispose of them at its pleasure. It could affix its own guarantee and sell the bonds at the open market. The claim for the collection and distribution of interest contains the term of the guarantee of Chinese integrity. It is proposed that an interest board of financiers collect periodically from China the amount of income which the ministers at Peking have decided can be extracted without ruining the country, this money to be divided up between the powers in the shape of interest in exact proportion to the bond held by them. In case of default by China each nation will lose its proportion, and a special covenant will bind each power to refrain from individual action against China to secure the payment of the arrears or to seize territory in lieu of interest in default. It is calculated that this each power will find it to its interest to prevent the division of China.

ROOSEVELT AND HANNA.

They Were Guests at Reception and Luncheon in Buffalo.

Buffalo, May 22.—Vice President Roosevelt and Senator Mark A. Hanna met the business men of the city at a reception given in their honor by the Merchants' Exchange. The exchange was decorated with flags and streamers and 250 merchants welcomed the guests with lusty cheers when President C. P. Fletchworth escorted them in. The vice president and the senator both spoke and extended their congratulations for what had been accomplished at the exposition. After the speeches the men shook hands with the vice president and Mr. Hanna.

After the meeting the executive committee of the exchange entertained Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Hanna and the officers of the exposition at luncheon at the Elicott club.

AMALGAMATED CONVENTION.

Committee May Be Appointed to Revise the Constitution.

Milwaukee, May 22.—The convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers met here, with 250 delegates present.

The relations of the organization with the recently organized United States Steel corporation are believed to be of vital importance to wage workers in general.

President T. J. Shaffer said: "There are many important resolutions affecting the constitution which are to come up, but I cannot say which ones are considered the most important. I am looking for the appointment of a committee by this convention which will revise the constitution to meet changed conditions. This has never been done before in the history of the association."

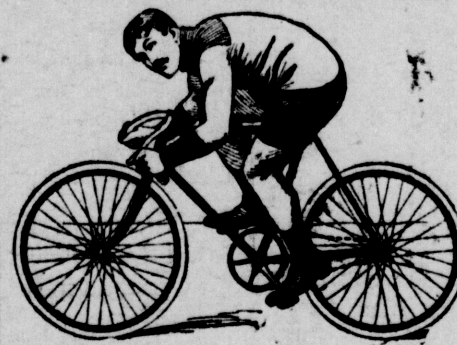

Mrs. Bonine Held For Murder.

Washington, May 22.—The coroner's jury that has been investigating the murder of James S. Ayres, the census office clerk, returned a verdict to the effect that Ayres was self and Mrs. Lola Ida Henri Bonine. The woman was held for the grand jury. She refused to make affidavit to her confession.

Jacquelin, the famous cycling champion of France, who recently defeated "Major" Taylor, the colored American champion, in Paris, now has a clear title to the championship of the world. His decisive victory over the "majah" in the one kilometer race in the Parc des Princes leaves no doubt as to the mooted question of international superiority, for Taylor had placed himself in a class of his own here in America.

Both men had won the best of the German and Italian races previous to their meeting, and from Jacques-

Jacquelin, world's champion cyclist. His fine showing against the speedy Taylor it is evident that he will be able to maintain his superiority for some time to come.

Taylor's defeat was a great surprise to Americans. It was confidently expected that when he returned to this country in July to participate in the circuit races of the N. C. A. he would carry the Frenchman's scalp at his belt.

Jacquelin's victorious career is largely due to his wonderful ability to spurt at the finish. It was his burst of speed in the final yards of his race with Taylor that netted him the triumph. No matter how rapid or exhausting the early part of the race, Jacquelin always has something "up his sleeve" for the end.

The veteran Tom Cooper went to Paris, knowing full well the Frenchman's power in this line and trained accordingly. The disastrous result of his trip, however, is a matter of cycling history.

Racing swimmers throughout the country will have much to attract their attention during the summer. Athletic clubs and associations are fixing dates for aquatic meets. Championship events in the various classes in different sections of the United States will be as fiercely fought as in previous years.

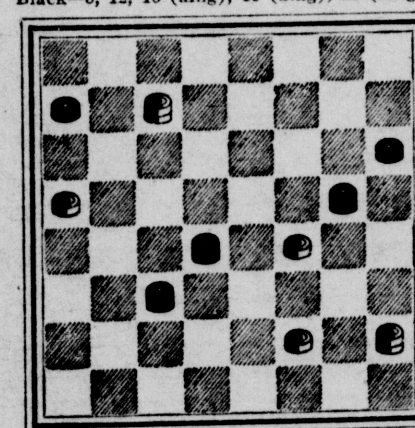

The Amateur Athletic union has always manifested considerable interest in swimming. The championship races of the organization will be held in Buffalo July 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13. The lake in Delaware park in the exposition city will be the scene of the competitions.

The A. A. U. swimming championships include the following events: One hundred, 220 and 440 yards, half mile and mile. Handicap races of the same description are scheduled.

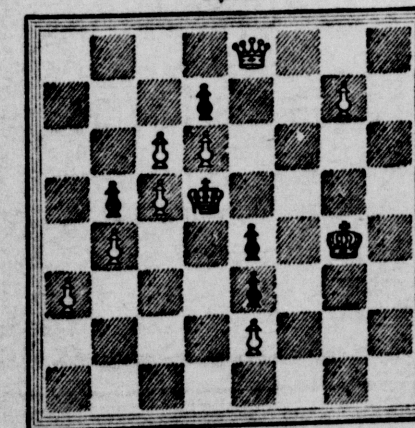

The racing feature of swimming should by all means be maintained by lovers of the splendid pastime. There is a tendency toward the dragging down of swimming to a mere summer resort diversion. The pernicious effects of this action, if it be continued, may be recognized immediately by those interested. Swimming properly indulged in is a wonderful developer of the human body. Every muscle fiber is called into action, and the value of the cool water's stimulating effect on the system cannot be overestimated.

MEMORIAL DAY SPORT

Many Big Athletic Events to Occur on May 30.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS IN LINE.

Events in Various Cities—Edgren of
California at Knickerbocker A. C.'s
Meet at Bergen Point, N. J.—Famous
Jumpers to Appear.

For the last few years May 30 has been considered throughout the length and breadth of the United States as one of the most important days of the season in sport. The outdoor sportsman then begins to realize how it feels to "stretch his wings," and as a result it has become the custom in all the large cities of the country to hold a galaxy of recreative events on Memorial day.

The holiday this year will be celebrated in New York, Chicago, Boston,

J. T. SPRAKER.
St. Louis, Philadelphia and San Francisco with athletic events of a very interesting character.

The carnival of the Knickerbocker Athletic club on its grounds at Bergen Point, N. J., will be one of the most important of the events in the east. Chicago is preparing a series of bicycle races. One of the cycling contests will be a 100 mile road race. The largest list of prizes ever awarded in a road race in this country is being arranged. All the colleges are getting their athletes in trim, and many track and field competitions in which records will be closely crowded have been scheduled.

Of course the baseball "fans" demand a suitable menu for the first summer holiday. The National, American, Eastern and Western leagues, together with the colleges and athletic clubs, have arranged attractive features for followers of diamond doings.

The meet of the Knickerbocker Athletic club will be remarkable in many ways. Many of the best men who figured in the recent intercollegiate championship competition on Berkeley oval, New York, will appear in their specialties. The entire track team of Yale university will be on hand. J. T. Spraker, the star high jumper from New Haven, has been brought to the top notch in training by Mike Murphy, and the agile collegian will probably duplicate some of his noteworthy feats.

Ray C. Emry, the world's champion in long jumps, will endeavor to break the international record for three standing jumps. R. W. Edgren, the well known California athlete, is preparing for the competitions.

In the all around weight throwing contest the athletic giants of America will be seen. Trainer Murphy has entered his formidable Yale trio, Richard Sheldon, Fred Beck and Stillman. These men are wonders in physical strength and development, but they will be pushed to the limit in holding their own against the westerner, Edgren.

George H. Ketcham, owner of Cresceus, 2:04, recently purchased a large block of red granite and will erect it as a monument over the resting place of the famous trotting stallion and sire, Robert McGregor, 2:17 1/2.

Robert McGregor died at the Ketcham farm, Toledo, three years ago, and the remains of the grand old trotter are buried in a pretty grove that will be used as a cemetery for all his celebrated descendants that pass away.

Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas will breed all of his mares, 10 or 12, to Wilkes and Electioneer stallions.

The 5 year-old mare by John R. Gentry, 2:00 1/2, out of Lizzie Rider, the dam of Rose Croix, 2:11 1/2, has been bred to Allerton, 2:00 1/4.

George A. Davis of Pleasanton, Cal., looks for Rey Direct, 2:10, to take a record of 2:05 in one of his eastern engagements this season. Previous to this year Rey Direct was bred to 31 mares and has 31 living foals.

The Vanity of Men.

"Vanity, vanity, all is vanity!" saith the preacher. Which is usually interpreted to mean, "All women are vanity." In point of fact, the observant are agreed that there is no sex in vanity, more than in mind. An elevator attendant not long ago glanced disgustedly at a man who during a long trip up ten or more stories occupied the entire time at the mirror. He curled the ends of his mustache, arranged his tie, adjusted his hat at a more becoming angle and was altogether so absorbed that he was carried beyond his destination and had to walk down a flight of stairs.

Said the elevator man to a woman in the car: "They say that a woman can't go by a looking glass without looking at herself, but as far as I can see she ain't in it with the men. A woman never gets a chance to look in that glass, for the men keep it busy all the time."

The man who carries a tiny comb or brush in his pocket for use in public places is by no means exceptional. He may be seen on the cable cars, the "L" and in elevators brushing his mustache and eyebrows with as much care as a woman could give to the arrangement of her curly front locks blown into disorder by the wind. Of course neatness is commendable, but there is always a touch of the ludicrous in a man's taking the little case from his pocket, extracting the comb and coaxing his hirsute adornments into a more becoming curve.—New York Tribune.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around, but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

NO. 674.

AN ORDINANCE to improve Bradshaw

avenue from Avondale street to Ambrose avenue.

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring) as follows:

Section 1. That the improvement of Bradshaw avenue, from Avondale street to Ambrose avenue, be proceeded with in accordance with the resolution to improve said avenue, passed the 26th day of March, 1901, and the plans and specifications on file in the office of the city engineer, by constructing the necessary storm water sewers of brick and terra cotta pipes, grading, cutting curbs and paving the roadway with best fire brick set on edge, and improving said street as called for in the resolution to improve.

Section 2. That the cost and expense of the said improvement, including damages, if any, assessed in favor of any land owner, interest on bonds issued, advertising, etc., shall be assessed on the lots and lands bounding and abutting on the said street, between the above named points, per foot front as called for in the resolution to improve (and in accordance with the law and ordinances on the subject of assessments.) The assessments therefor shall be paid in ten (10) annual installments, if deferred, and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed. Bonds will be issued in anticipation of the collection of the said assessments unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time specified in the assessing ordinance.

The following property is to be assessed.

"Waal, to tell ye the truth," replied Cyrus, "I'm kinder out of wives just now."—Detroit Free Press.

PORTER IS DEAD

BEEN ILL OF DIABETES

ers Sent to Gen. Brooke to Co-
operate With Gen. Webb in Arranging a Military Funeral—Old Controversy Recalled.

New York, May 22.—General Fitz
Porter, the veteran fighter, died in Morristown, N. J. For a week he has been very ill with diabetes.
At General Porter's bedside were two sons and Dr. G. S. Wilds. The cause of General Porter's death was ascribed to Washington and this city. Orders were sent to General Brooke to co-operate with General Alexander S. Webb in arranging a military funeral for the dead general. Up to four years ago General Porter was a conspicuous figure in New York city. Although past 70
he was straight as an Indian and a sternly military looking person.
His brilliant military career was ended by his being cashiered from army for his action at the second battle of Bull Run. He was honorably reinstated about 23 years afterward. Discussion of the Porter incident raged for years, and the leading generals of the war were divided in it. General John Pope made the charges against General Porter, which were sustained by a court martial.
General Grant himself who finally ordered a long investigation, publicly exonerated General Porter.

TO KEEP CHINA INTACT

Proposed Nations Agree Not to Seize Territory, if Indemnity Is Defaulted.

Washington, May 22.—The state department has been made fully acquainted by Mr. Rockhill with the character of the propositions relative to the floating of the indemnity loan folded at Peking. While grave objections are perceived to the Russian project for a joint guarantee of the loan, because of the immense difficulty of securing the assent of congress to an agreement which would tangle the United States with foreign nations for more than a quarter of a century at the least, there is nothing in Mr. Rockhill's instructions which would cause him to antagonize the proposition, provided it is fully developed so as to secure the safety
of the loan, while assuring the integrity of China. It is suggested that the objections can best be secured authorizing China to deliver to the United States bonds bearing 4 per cent interest to the face value of that nation's indemnity claim. The nation dignity would be preserved and the claim for the collection and distribution of interest contains the essence of the guarantee of Chinese integrity. It is proposed that an inter-board of financiers collect periodically from China the amount of interest which the ministers at Peking have decided can be extracted without ruining the country, this money
be divided up between the powers the shape of interest in exact proportion to the bond held by them.
In case of default by China each nation will lose its proportion, and a covenant will bind each power refrain from individual action against China to secure the payment of the arrears or to seize territory in interest in default. It is calculated that thus each power will find it to its interest to prevent the liquidation of China.

ROOSEVELT AND HANNA.

They Were Guests at Reception and Luncheon in Buffalo.

Buffalo, May 22.—Vice President
Roosevelt and Senator Mark A.
Hanna met the business men of the city at a reception given in their honor by the Merchants' Exchange.
The exchange was decorated with flowers and streamers and 250 members welcomed the guests with cheers when President C.
T. H. H. escorted them in. The vice president and the senator both spoke and extended their congratulations for what had been accomplished at the exposition. After the speeches the men shook hands with the vice president and Mr. Hanna.
After the meeting the executive committee of the exchange entered Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Hanna and other officers of the exposition at dinner at the Ellicott club.

AMALGAMATED CONVENTION.

Committee May Be Appointed to Revise the Constitution.

Milwaukee, May 22.—The convention of the Amalgamated Association
Iron, Steel and Tin Workers met here, with 250 delegates present.
The relations of the organization to the recently organized United Steel Corporation are believed to be of vital importance to wage workers in general.
President T. J. Shaffer said:
There are many important resolutions affecting the constitution which must come up, but I cannot say which ones are considered the most important. I am looking for the appointment of a committee by this convention which will revise the constitution to meet changed conditions.
This has never been done before in

Mrs. Bonine Held For Murder.

Washington, May 22.—The coroner's jury that has been investigating the murder of James S. Ayres, the chief office clerk, returned a verdict to the effect that Ayres was killed during a conflict between himself and Mrs. Lola Ida Henri Bonine.
The woman was held for the grand jury. She refused to make affidavit her confession.

Jacquelin, the famous cycling champion of France, who recently defeated
"Major" Taylor, the colored American champion, in Paris, now has a clear
title to the championship of the world.
His decisive victory over the "majah"
in the one kilometer race in the Parc
des Princes leaves no doubt as to the mooted question of international superiority, for Taylor had placed himself
in a class of his own here in America.
Both men had worsted the best of the German and Italian racers previous to their meeting, and from Jacque-

JACQUELIN, WORLD'S CHAMPION CYCLER.
His fine showing against the speedy Taylor it is evident that he will be able to maintain his superiority for some time to come.

Taylor's defeat was a great surprise to Americans. It was confidently expected that when he returned to this country in July to participate in the circuit races of the N. C. A. he would carry the Frenchman's scalp at his belt.

Jacquelin's victorious career is largely due to his wonderful ability to spur at the finish. It was his burst of speed in the final yards of his race with Taylor that netted him the triumph. No matter how rapid or exhausting the early part of the race, Jacquelin always has something "up his sleeve" for
the end.

The veteran Tom Cooper went to Paris, knowing full well the Frenchman's power in this line and trained accordingly. The disastrous result of his trip, however, is a matter of cycling history.

Racing swimmers throughout the country will have much to attract their attention during the summer. Athletic clubs and associations are fixing dates
for aquatic meets. Championship events in the various classes in different sections of the United States will be as fiercely fought as in previous years.

The Amateur Athletic union has always manifested considerable interest in swimming. The championship races of the organization will be held in Buffalo July 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13. The lake in Delaware park in the exposition city will be the scene of the competitions.

The A. A. U. swimming championships include the following events: One hundred, 220 and 440 yards, half mile and mile. Handicap races of the same description are scheduled.

The racing feature of swimming should by all means be maintained
by lovers of the splendid pastime.
There is a tendency toward the dragging down of swimming to a mere summer resort diversion. The pernicious effects of this action, if it be continued, may be recognized immediately
by those interested. Swimming properly indulged in is a wonderful developer of the human body. Every muscle fiber is called into action, and the value of the cool water's stimulating effect on the system cannot be overestimated.

Many Big Athletic Events to Occur on May 30.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS IN LINE.

Events in Various Cities—Edgren of
California at Knickerbocker A. C.'s
Jumpers to Appear.

For the last few years May 30 has
been considered throughout the length and breadth of the United States as one of the most important days of the season in sport. The outdoor sportsman then begins to realize how it feels to "stretch his wings," and as a result it has become the custom in all the large cities of the country to hold a galaxy of recreative events on Memorial day.

The holiday this year will be celebrated in New York, Chicago, Boston,

J. T. SPRAKER.
St. Louis, Philadelphia and San Francisco with athletic events of a very interesting character.

The carnival of the Knickerbocker
Athletic club on its grounds at Bergen Point, N. J., will be one of the most important of the events in the east.
Chicago is preparing a series of bicycle races. One of the cycling contests will be a 100 mile road race. The largest list of prizes ever awarded in a road
race in this country is being arranged.
All the colleges are getting their athletes in trim, and many track and field competitions in which records will be closely crowded have been scheduled.

Of course the baseball "fans" demand a suitable menu for the first summer holiday. The National American, Eastern and Western leagues, together with the colleges and athletic clubs, have arranged attractive features for followers of diamond doings.

The meet of the Knickerbocker Athletic club will be remarkable in many ways. Many of the best men who figured in the recent intercollegate championship competition on Berkeley oval, New York, will appear in their specialties. The entire track team
of Yale university will be on hand. J.
T. Spraker, the star high jumper from
New Haven, has been brought to the top notch in training by Mike Murphy, and the agile collegian will probably duplicate some of his noteworthy feats.
Ray C. Emry, the world's champion in long jumps, will endeavor to break
the international record for three standing jumps. R. W. Edgren, the well known California athlete, is preparing for the competitions.

In the all around weight throwing contest the athletic giants of America will be seen. Trainer Murphy has entered his formidable Yale trio, Richard Sheldon, Fred Beck and Stillman.
These men are wonders in physical strength and development, but they will be pushed to the limit in holding their own against the westerner, Ed-
gren.

George H. Ketcham, owner of Cresceus, 2:04, recently purchased a large block of red granite and will erect it
as a monument over the resting place
of the famous trotting stallion and sire,
Robert McGregor, 2:17 1/2.

Robert McGregor died at the Ketcham farm, Toledo, three years ago, and the remains of the grand old trotter are buried in a pretty grove that will be used as a cemetery for all his celebrated descendants that pass away.

Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas will breed all of his mares, 10 or 12, to Wilkes and Electioneer stallions.

The 5 year-old mare by John R. Gentry, 2:00 1/2, out of Lizzie Rider, the dam of Rose Croix, 2:11 1/4, has been bred to Allerton, 2:00 1/4.

George A. Davis of Pleasanton, Cal., looks for Rey Direct, 2:10, to take a record of 2:05 in one of his eastern engagements this season. Previous to this year Rey Direct was bred to 31 mares
and has 31 living foals.

The Vanity of Men.

"Vanity, vanity, all is vanity!" saith the preacher. Which is usually interpreted to mean, "All women are vanity." In point of fact, the observant are agreed that there is no sex in vanity, more than in mind. An elevator attendant not long ago glanced disgust-
edly at a man who during a long trip
up ten or more stories occupied the entire time at the mirror. He curled the ends of his mustache, arranged his tie, adjusted his hat at a more becoming angle and was altogether so absorbed
that he was carried beyond his destination and had to walk down a flight of stairs.

Said the elevator man to a woman in the car: "They say that a woman can't go by a looking glass without looking at herself, but as far as I can see she ain't in it with the men. A woman never gets a chance to look in that glass, for the men keep it busy all the time."

The man who carries a tiny comb or brush in his pocket for use in public places is by no means exceptional. He may be seen on the cable cars, the "L" and in elevators brushing his mustache
and eyebrows with as much care as a woman could give to the arrangement
of her curly front locks blown into disorder by the wind. Of course neatness is commendable, but there is always a touch of the ludicrous in a man's taking the little case from his pocket, extracting the comb and coaxing his hirsute adornments into a more becoming curve.—New York Tribune.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Four- teen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic
Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did

NO. 674.
AN ORDINANCE to improve Bradshaw avenue from Avondale street to Ambrose avenue.

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring) as follows:

Section 1. That the improvement of Bradshaw avenue, from Avondale street to Ambrose avenue, be proceeded with in accordance with the resolution to improve said avenue, passed
the 26th day of March, 1901, and the plans and specifications on file in the office of the city engineer, by constructing the necessary storm water sewers
of brick and terra cotta pipes, grading,
cutting curbs and paving the roadway with best fire brick set on edge, and improving said street as called for in the resolution to improve.

Section 2. That the cost and expense of the said improvement, including damages, if any, assessed in favor of any land owner, interest on bonds issued, advertising, etc., shall be assessed on the lots and lands
bounding and abutting on the said street, between the above named points, per foot front as called for in the resolution to improve (and in accordance with the law and ordinances on the subject of assessments.) The assessments therefor shall be paid in ten (10) annual installments, if deferred, and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed. Bonds will be issued in anticipation of the collection of the said assessments unless the property owners pay their assessments before the bonds are issued and within the time specified in the assessing ordinance.

and to amend section 131 of chapter
XI, of the revised ordinances," passed
April 12, 1898, be amended so as to read as follows: Before entering upon the duties of his office, each policeman
and night watchman shall take the oath required by law and give bond
in the penal sum of five hundred ($500)
dollars; with sureties to the approval of the mayor and council, conditioned
as required by law. Each of the policemen and night watchmen shall receive the sum of $2.50 per day and he shall not demand or receive any other fee, perquisite or reward.
The city marshal shall receive a salary of seven hundred and twenty ($720) dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the city treasury, in addition to the legal fees which may be collected.

Section 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance be, and the same are hereby repealed.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Belmont Club Ball—The Belmont club will hold its first dance of the season at Rock Springs tomorrow night.

Cut His Head—A son of Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Reinartz fell on Washington street yesterday and cut an ugly gash in his head.

Exams. in Progress—The final examinations were begun at the various schools of the city yesterday. They will be continued until next Wednesday.

Summer Togs for Postmen—The summer outfit of the local letter carriers have been received and includes a broad brimmed sombrero, which is calculated to act as a sunshade.

Judgment Awarded Plaintiff—Judgment by default was rendered in Justice McLane's court last evening against Charles Smith for $7.80 in favor of Miss R. Bills. The money was claimed as a balance due on a grocery bill.

Only One Arrest—James Dixon was arrested last night by Officer Dawson on a charge of intoxication. He was taken to jail, but as Mayor Davidson is absent from the city today, Dixon has not yet got a hearing. No other arrests were made.

He Will Dance—Charles C. Armstrong, the local colored buck dancer, left for Wheeling last night, where he is entered in a dancing contest to take place tonight in that city. He is also matched against a Steubenville dancer in a contest to take place at the Albion house in this city two weeks hence.

Goes to New Mexico—Edward Roe, of Third street, who has been suffering from throat trouble for the past nine months, will leave in a few days for an extended trip through the southwest in the hope that his condition may be improved. If the climate proves beneficial he may remain in New Mexico.

Performed Wonders—The Massillon papers give an interesting report of the lecture on liquid air, given in that city by Prof. J. E. Woodland last week. Among the wonders performed by the aid of the new substance were the freezing of mercury and alcohol, the latter requiring a temperature of 202 degrees below zero. Mercury was frozen so hard that it was used as a hammer to drive nails. Prof. Woodland lectures here Friday evening.

MOTORMEN'S GAME

Resulted in a Victory for the Rock Springs Railway Team.

The much-talked-of ball game between the motormen of the East Liverpool team and the Rock Springs railway employees was played at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon. The teams agreed to play five innings only on account of the rain.

The East Liverpool boys expected a walkover, but neglected to play ball. The result was that when the game ended the score stood 15 to 8 in favor of the Rock Springs men. The East Liverpool motormen are busy today explaining how it happened.

Batteries—Southside, Reed and Liebold; East Liverpool, Jack, Crawford and Deitz.

THE FINDLAY STRIKE

Causes Potters of That City to Seek Employment Elsewhere.

C. T. Shuler arrived in this city from Findlay last evening and will secure employment in some of the potteries here.

The gentleman is one of 25 or 30 employees of the Findlay pottery who went on strike in Findlay six weeks ago yesterday. Mr. Shuler is a kiln-hand and expects to locate here permanently. He states that the strikers represent all the trades, and are demanding the enforcement of the uniform wage scale in operation at most of the western manufacturing concerns. A few men are still at work in all departments, although very little work is being done.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. George Frederick and Dr. J. I. McMillen Soon to Wed.

The engagement of Dr. J. I. McMillen, of Leetonia, and Mrs. George Frederick, of this city, has been announced. The wedding will take place on June 12 at the home of Mrs. Frederick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, High street, Salem, in the presence of only the intimate friends of the contracting parties. The couple will make their home in Leetonia.

We have just received the second carload of plants from Leroy Lamboine, of Alliance, consisting of cemetery plants, bedding plants, also for baskets and vases. This is the finest selection ever brought to the city. Call and see them at T. B. Murphy & Son.

ACTIVITY DECLINED

Aggregate Sales in Stock Market Fell Lower Than in Many Months

New York, May 22.—There was a still further decline in activity in the stock market Tuesday, the aggregate sales falling to a figure that has not been touched before in many months.

The nature of the business is indicated by the example of several stocks Tuesday. Union Pacific was sold Monday on reports of an additional issue of convertible bonds to finance the Northern Pacific stock purchase. Tuesday the fact was confirmed that the company had applied to the stock exchange to list the additional bonds, yet Union Pacific rose at one time 1½ over Monday night. Missouri Pacific was weak Monday on the statement that the expected dividend would not be declared at once; Tuesday the directors met without acting on the dividend, yet the stock rose four points over the early low point. In other words, the bears of Monday were covering their contracts Tuesday. The buying of railroads and capitalists to effect changes in control of various railroad systems, which was supposed to make up the bulk of the buying in the boom market, when dealings ran between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 shares a day, is also inconspicuous, although rumors of such dealings continue to play some part, especially in Union Pacific, which is credited by the newest rumors with securing an interest in St. Paul. The strength of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western stocks is accompanied by intimations about the exchange that the buying is for Vanderbilt account with a view to elimination of competition. The old story of a consolidation of Southwestern roads was revived Tuesday in connection with the rally in Missouri Pacific. The continuation of the injunction against Amalgamated Copper merger projects accounted for the early weakness of that stock. American Linseed and National Lead were coincidentally strong, rather strangely, since the absorption of the linseed company by the Union Lead and Oil company is supposed to indicate increased competition for the National Lead company. The greater ease of money Tuesday had some influence in the recovery of prices.

The bond market was dull and inclined to weakness early, but showed some recoveries later in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,790,000.

U. S. new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

TWO SHAMROCKS RACED.

Puzzling Encounter Occurred—Satisfactory Trial of Constitution.

Ryde, Isle of Wight, May 22.—The trial of the Shamrock II and the Shamrock I was in many respects the most puzzling that has yet taken place. Instead of throwing additional light upon the abilities of the challenger, the race made it more difficult than ever to estimate its speed.

When they finished at Nab Light-ship the times were: The Shamrock I, 2 hours, 6 minutes and 12 seconds; the Shamrock II, 2 hours, 11 minutes and 19 seconds.

The opinion of most of the experts who witnessed the race was that, had it been desired that the Shamrock II should win, she could easily have done so.

Bristol, R. I., May 22.—Up and down Narragansett bay the cup defender Constitution was put through her first paces and acquitted herself, as Mr. Duncan, her master, said, most satisfactorily.

FISTIC ENCOUNTER

In Which Two Motormen are Said to Have Engaged—One Was Badly Punished.

Two motormen, one being employed on the Rock Springs electric line and the other on the East Liverpool line, are said to have engaged in a fight last night in the alley north of the Diamond.

One of the duelists is reported to have received a severe beating and would have fared more badly had not assistance reached him.

Couldn't Follow Him.

At a small country church in England a newly married couple were just receiving some advice from the elderly vicar as to how they were to conduct themselves and so always live happily.

"You must never both get cross at once; it is the husband's duty to protect his wife whenever an occasion arises, and a wife must love, honor and obey her husband and follow him wherever he goes."

"But, sir"—pleaded the young bride, "I haven't yet finished," remarked the clergyman, annoyed at the interruption.

"She must!"

"But, please, sir (in desperation), can't you alter that last part? My husband is going to be a postman."

Not He.

"No, sir," replied the seedy vagrant, who was not wanting in spirit. "The other fellow wuz the bruiser. I'm the bruiser."—Chicago Tribune.

Independent.

We admire the independence of a western poet who says in a preface to his volume: "If the critics don't like this book, I wish to say to them that I do. If they tear it to tatters, I shall pick up the pieces and embark on the plastering business. I am here to stay, and you bet I've made up my mind to it."—Atlanta Constitution.

HOME AND ABROAD

International Sporting Contests a Feature of the 1901 Season.

SHOOTS, ROWING, TRACK, TENNIS.

American-English Competitions Will Be More Interesting Than Ever Before—European Nations Enter the Lists—Transatlantic Jockeys.

One of the most prominent and striking features of the summer sporting season this year will be the international contests. America and England have for many years carried on games and competitions of all kinds in which representatives from both countries took part. This year the contests promise to be of more than usual interest, as men from France, Germany, and Italy as well, have stated their intention of participating in the various meets.

The Henley regatta of 1901 will be hotly fought. The picked crew from the University of Pennsylvania that will represent the stars and stripes in the historic English rowing races will doubtless "cut a big figure" in settling the international premiership in this branch of athletics. The crews from abroad are strong opponents, but Coach Ellis Ward of the Quaker eight is hopeful of the showing of American brain and brawn when the oarsmen strive for honors in July.

Considerable attention is being directed toward the American marksmen

who arrived in England a few days ago on a tour of the European trap shooting centers. Thomas A. Marshall, mayor of Keithsburg, Ill., is captain of the team. Marshall is one of the best known shots in this country. He won the Grand American Handicap two different years, and his experience will aid the ten men accompanying him in the shooting tourneys with the foreign marksmen.

The international rifle shooting matches take place at Sea Girt, N. J., during the latter part of August and the first week of September. Rifle shots from the United States, England, France, Germany, Switzerland and the Argentine Republic are scheduled to shoot on the national guard ranges. Sir Thomas Lipton will be one of the guests of honor.

The American-English tennis tournament is another event of transatlantic interest. The British team suffered a severe trouncing on this side of the pond last year. Gore, Black and Barret, however, have been succeeded by the famous Doherty brothers, the English champions, who will use every art and dodge in their repertory to reverse the result.

The tennis matches will probably be held on St. George's cricket grounds, Hoboken, N. J., in July.

In track and field events the international crop will be very large. A team of four or five leading American athletes is to invade Great Britain in a few weeks. Richard Sheldon, the Yale shot putter and hammer thrower; I. K. Baxter, the Pennsylvania jumper; Alexander Grant, the Quaker long distance runner, and John Flanagan, the N. Y. A. C. hammer thrower, are to pay their own expenses abroad in amateur contests.

A large aggregation of Britishers will come over here to enter the Pan-American international games at Buffalo during the summer. Dennis Hogan, the famous Irish athlete who defeated Sheldon in the hammer throw last year, is coming with the sons of John Bull.

Yale and Harvard have arranged games with Cambridge and Oxford, which will be decided on Berkeley oval, New York, the scene of the recent American intercollegiate athletic carnival.

It is a significant fact that the American jockeys and horse owners in England have been benefited by Dame Fortune's smiles this season. The snappy young riders Johnny and Lester Reiff have an imposing array of winnings to their credit. Their career might well be termed phenomenal. Danny Maher, who rode for August Belmont here last year, has also been doing well on the English turf. Truly the "American style" of riding, ridiculed at first by England's horsemen, has been vindicated.

Golfing Gossip.

Fred Morgan, the popular professional golfer who came to this country a few months ago, has accepted the position of instructor of the Racine Golf association, Wisconsin. Morgan became well known as an amateur on the famous old St. Andrew's links. He is highly spoken of by H. H. Hilton, who has won the open championship of England three times.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Belmont Club Ball—The Belmont club will hold its first dance of the season at Rock Springs tomorrow night.

Cut His Head—A son of Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Remartz fell on Washington street yesterday and cut an ugly gash in his head.

Exams. in Progress—The final examinations were begun at the various schools of the city yesterday. They will be continued until next Wednesday.

Summer Togs for Postmen—The summer outfit of the local letter carriers have been received and includes a broad brimmed sombrero, which is calculated to act as a sunshade.

Judgment Awarded Plaintiff—Judgment by default was rendered in Justice McLane's court last evening against Charles Smith for $7.80 in favor of Miss R. Bills. The money was claimed as a balance due on a grocery bill.

Only One Arrest—James Dixon was arrested last night by Officer Dawson on a charge of intoxication. He was taken to jail, but as Mayor Davidson is absent from the city today, Dixon has not yet got a hearing. No other arrests were made.

He Will Dance—Charles C. Armstrong, the local colored buck dancer, left for Wheeling last night, where he is entered in a dancing contest to take place tonight in that city. He is also matched against a Steubenville dancer in a contest to take place at the Albion house in this city two weeks hence.

Goes to New Mexico—Edward Roe, of Third street, who has been suffering from throat trouble for the past nine months, will leave in a few days for an extended trip through the southwest in the hope that his condition may be improved. If the climate proves beneficial he may remain in New Mexico.

Performed Wonders—The Massillon papers give an interesting report of the lecture on liquid air, given in that city by Prof. J. E. Woodland last week. Among the wonders performed by the aid of the new substance were the freezing of mercury and alcohol, the latter requiring a temperature of 202 degrees below zero. Mercury was frozen so hard that it was used as a hammer to drive nails. Prof. Woodland lectures here Friday evening.

MOTORMEN'S GAME

Resulted in a Victory for the Rock Springs Railway Team.

The much-talked-of ball game between the motormen of the East Liverpool team and the Rock Springs railway employees was played at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon. The teams agreed to play five innings only on account of the rain.

The East Liverpool boys expected a walkover, but neglected to play ball. The result was that when the game ended the score stood 15 to 8 in favor of the Rock Springs men. The East Liverpool motormen are busy today explaining how it happened.

Batteries—Southside, Reed and Liebold; East Liverpool, Jack, Crawford and Deitz.

THE FINDLAY STRIKE

Causes Potters of That City to Seek Employment Elsewhere.

C. T. Shuler arrived in this city from Findlay last evening and will secure employment in some of the potteries here.

The gentleman is one of 25 or 30 employees of the Findlay pottery who went on strike in Findlay six weeks ago yesterday. Mr. Shuler is a kiln-hand and expects to locate here permanently. He states that the strikers represent all the trades, and are demanding the enforcement of the uniform wage scale in operation at most of the western manufacturing concerns. A few men are still at work in all departments, although very little work is being done.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. George Frederick and Dr. J. I. McMillen Soon to Wed.

The engagement of Dr. J. I. McMillen, of Leetonia, and Mrs. George Frederick, of this city, has been announced. The wedding will take place on June 12 at the home of Mrs. Frederick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, High street, Salem, in the presence of only the intimate friends of the contracting parties. The couple will make their home in Leetonia.

We have just received the second carload of plants from Leroy Lamborne, of Alliance, consisting of cemetery plants, bedding plants, also for baskets and vases. This is the finest selection ever brought to the city. Call and see them at T. B. Murphy & Son.

ACTIVITY DECLINED

New York, May 22.—There was a still further decline in activity in the stock market Tuesday, the aggregate sales falling to a figure that has not been touched before in many months. The nature of the business is indicated by the example of several stocks Tuesday. Union Pacific was sold Monday on reports of an additional issue of convertible bonds to finance the Northern Pacific stock purchase. Tuesday the fact was confirmed that the company had applied to the stock exchange to list the additional bonds, yet Union Pacific rose at one time 4½ over Monday night, Missouri Pacific was weak Monday on the statement that the expected dividend would not be declared at once; Tuesday the directors met without acting on the dividend, yet the stock rose four points over the early low point. In other words, the bears of Monday were covering their contracts Tuesday. The buying of railroads and capitalists to effect changes in control of various railroad systems, which was supposed to make up the bulk of the buying in the boom market, when dealings ran between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 shares a day, is also inconspicuous, although rumors of such dealings continue to play some part, especially in Union Pacific, which is credited by the newest rumors with securing an interest in St. Paul. The strength of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western stocks is accompanied by intimations about the exchange that the buying is for Vanderbilt account with a view to elimination of competition. The old story of a consolidation of Southwestern roads was revived Tuesday in connection with the rally in Missouri Pacific. The continuation of the injunction against Amalgamated Copper merger projects accounted for the early weakness of that stock. American Linseed and National Lead were coincidentally strong, rather strangely, since the absorption of the linseed company by the Union Lead and Oil company is supposed to indicate increased competition for the National Lead company. The greater ease of money Tuesday had some influence in the recovery of prices.

The bond market was dull and inclined to weakness early, but showed some recovery later in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,790,000.

U. S. new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

TWO SHAMROCKS RACED.

Ryde, Isle of Wight, May 22.—The trial of the Shamrock II and the Shamrock I was in many respects the most puzzling that has yet taken place. Instead of throwing additional light upon the abilities of the challenger, the race made it more difficult than ever to estimate its speed.

When they finished at Nab Light—the times were: The Shamrock I, 2 hours, 6 minutes and 12 seconds; the Shamrock II, 2 hours, 11 minutes and 19 seconds.

The opinion of most of the experts who witnessed the race was that, had it been desired that the Shamrock II should win, she could easily have done so.

Bristol, R. I., May 22.—Up and down Narragansett bay the cup defender Constitution was put through her first paces and acquitted herself, as Mr. Duncan, her master, said, most satisfactorily.

FISTIC ENCOUNTER

In Which Two Motormen are Said to Have Engaged—One Was Badly Punished.

Two motormen, one being employed on the Rock Springs electric line and the other on the East Liverpool line, are said to have engaged in a fight last night in the alley north of the Diamond.

One of the duelists is reported to have received a severe beating and would have fared more badly had not assistance reached him.

Couldn't Follow Him.

At a small country church in England a newly married couple were just receiving some advice from the elderly vicar as to how they were to conduct themselves and so always live happily.

"You must never both get cross at once; it is the husband's duty to protect his wife whenever an occasion arises, and a wife must love, honor and obey her husband and follow him wherever he goes."

"But, sir," pleaded the young bride, "I haven't yet finished," remarked the clergyman, annoyed at the interruption.

"She must!"

Not He.

"No, sir," replied the seedy vagrant, who was not wanting in spirit. "The other fellow wuz the bruiser. I'm the bruiser."—Chicago Tribune.

Independent.

We admire the independence of a western poet who says in a preface to his volume: "If the critics don't like this book, I wish to say to them that I do. If they tear it to tatters, I shall pick up the pieces and embark in the plastering business. I am here to stay, and you bet I've made up my mind to it."—Atlanta Constitution.

HOME AND ABROAD

International Sporting Contests a Feature of the 1901 Season.

SHOOTS, ROWING, TRACK, TENNIS.

One of the most prominent and striking features of the summer sporting season this year will be the international contests. America and England have for many years carried on games and competitions of all kinds in which representatives from both countries took part. This year the contests promise to be of more than usual interest, as men from France, Germany, and Italy as well, have stated their intention of participating in the various meets.

The Henley regatta of 1901 will be hotly fought. The picked crew from the University of Pennsylvania that will represent the stars and stripes in the historic English rowing races will doubtless "cut a big figure" in settling the international premiership in this branch of aquatic. The crews from abroad are strong opponents, but Coach Ellis Ward of the Quaker eight is hopeful of the showing of American brain and brawn when the oarsmen strive for honors in July.

Considerable attention is being directed toward the American marksmen

who arrived in England a few days ago on a tour of the European trap shooting centers. Thomas A. Marshall, mayor of Keithsburg, Ill., is captain of the team. Marshall is one of the best known shots in this country. He won the Grand American Handicap two different years, and his experience will aid the ten men accompanying him in the shooting tourneys with the foreign marksmen.

The international rifle shooting matches take place at Sea Girt, N. J., during the latter part of August and the first week of September. Rifle shots from the United States, England, France, Germany, Switzerland and the Argentine Republic are scheduled to shoot on the national guard ranges. Sir Thomas Lipton will be one of the guests of honor.

The American-English tennis tournament is another event of transatlantic interest. The British team suffered a severe trouncing on this side of the pond last year. Gore, Black and Barrett, however, have been succeeded by the famous Doherty brothers, the English champions, who will use every art and dodge in their repertory to reverse the result.

The tennis matches will probably be held on St. George's cricket grounds, Hoboken, N. J., in July.

In track and field events the international crop will be very large. A team of four or five leading American athletes is to invade Great Britain in a few weeks. Richard Sheldon, the Yale shot putter and hammer thrower; I. K. Baxter, the Pennsylvania jumper; Alexander Grant, the Quaker long distance runner, and John Flanagan, the N. Y. A. C. hammer thrower, are to pay their own expenses abroad in amateur contests.

A large aggregation of Britishers will come over here to enter the Pan-American international games at Buffalo during the summer. Dennis Hogan, the famous Irish athlete who defeated Sheldon in the hammer throw last year, is coming with the sons of John Bull.

Yale and Harvard have arranged games with Cambridge and Oxford, which will be decided on Berkeley oval, New York, the scene of the recent American intercollegiate athletic carnival.

It is a significant fact that the American jockeys and horse owners in England have been benefited by Dame Fortune's smiles this season. The snappy young riders Johnny and Lester Reiff have an imposing array of winnings to their credit. Their career might well be termed phenomenal. Danny Maher, who rode for August Belmont here last year, has also been doing well on the English turf. Truly the "American style" of riding, ridiculed at first by England's horsemen, has been vindicated.

Golfing Gossip.

Fred Morgan, the popular professional golfer who came to this country a few months ago, has accepted the position of instructor of the Racine Golf association, Wisconsin. Morgan became well known as an amateur on the famous old St. Andrew's links. He is highly spoken of by H. H. Hilton, who has won the open championship of England three times.

SPIRIT OF ENERGY INFUSED INTO THE BOARD OF TRADE

Prospect of a New Industry Arouses Members to Activity.

SOMETHING GOOD IN SIGHT

A Meeting Will Be Held On Monday Night and Its Nature Explained.

LARGE MANUFACTURING PLANT

Although the new board of trade has been organized but a little over a week, there has been a great deal of discouraging talk concerning the organization, and until last night it looked as though the movement might be given up, as the membership seemed to have lost interest.

Everything is changed today, however, since President Croxall notified the secretary last evening that a meeting would be held on Monday night. It is now thought the board will take up the work coming under its jurisdiction with a degree of interest that will assure the success of the movement.

A stranger came to the city yesterday, and without difficulty located the officers of the board. He is desirous of locating a large manufacturing concern in the Ohio valley, and should he get the necessary encouragement would as soon locate here as anywhere else.

The officers of the board refuse to give out the sort of industry in which the promoter is interested, but it is understood that if the local organization succeeds in landing it, the city will be greatly benefited. It is said the plans for the plant are already in such shape that work could be started on its erection within a few weeks. Several hundred men will be employed, and it is alleged that the industry is of such a nature that, in case it is brought here, the chances for more of the same sort will be excellent.

A prominent member of the board said today: "The East Liverpool board of trade has an opportunity to prove that it is composed of the right sort of material, and it is hoped the proposition to be submitted on next Monday will be favorably considered at that time. I would hate to have it said that East Liverpool could not support an organization of this character, but it certainly did look that way for a few days. I believe the crisis is past, however, and that things will move along smoothly."

WOULD-BE THUGS

TRIED TO GET POSSESSION OF A STRANGER'S MONEY.

He Was Equal to the Emergency, However, And Blocked Their Game.

A well dressed stranger who claimed to be a blacksmith and called Beaver Falls his home, arrived in the city last evening. He made his way to a Second street saloon, where he met several agreeable young men, and in a few minutes drinks were flowing in great abundance at the stranger's expense.

When he squared his account with the bartender the blacksmith revealed a roll of bills of monstrous size which made the eyes of his companions fairly bulge from their sockets. Two of the fellows, it is said, undertook to "work" the stranger and relieve him of his money.

Accordingly the whisky bottle was called for and the intended victim urged to drink. He did so, but he took particular notice his "friends" did likewise. Time after time the bottle was passed around with the result that all of the fellows began to become seakick.

When the two who had planned the robbery thought the stranger was properly "fixed" they suggested that he take a walk. He consented, but no sooner had he reached the street than he told his newly made acquaintances they would have to excuse him a moment until he turned his money over to the proprietor of the saloon for safe keeping. This balked the plans of the fellows, and they promptly started off.

At this juncture the stranger burst into a hearty laugh, explaining to the would-be thugs that he was aware of their scheme, and that he just wanted to "jolly" them a little.

GALLIPOLIS BOY MISSING

Thought the Body of the Boy Found in the River at Chester Might Be That of His Son.

Chief Thompson is in receipt of a letter from Robert P. Alexander, of Gallipolis, asking for a description of the body of boy which was found several days ago in the river near Chester. Mr. Alexander states that his 13-year old son has been missing from home for several weeks, and that no trace of him has been found. He thought the boy might have come to this city and accidentally fell into the river.

A picture of the lad was enclosed in the envelope, together with his description, as follows: Height, four feet 11 inches; light hair, blue eyes, wore gray clothes with knee breeches. He is thought to have ran away from home.

The body found at Chester was positively identified by Thomas Gaughan, whose home is at Allegheny, as being that of his son. Hence, it will doubtless be a relief to Mr. Alexander to learn that it was not his boy.

A GOOD JOKE

Employers of the Murphy Pottery Are Having Much Fun at Will DeBee's Expense.

The employees of the Murphy pottery are having considerable fun at the expense of William DeBee, one of their number, who is contemplating a trip to the Buffalo exposition. Yesterday afternoon several of the fellows who work with DeBee procured an old, worn-out valise on which they painted his name.

This morning the receptacle was found suspended from the cross arm of a telephone pole in front of the pottery. On one side appears these words: "Will DeBee, off for Buffalo," on the other side is: "Let me off at Buffalo, or I'll get lost." Passengers on the trains today were much amused at the sight, and the pottery boys except DeBee enjoyed the joke thoroughly.

WILL NOT GO OVER

Richard Walker, who is held at the city jail under sentence to serve a term at the workhouse, will likely escape that unsought distinction. Mrs. Walker has been making an effort to raise the cash necessary to secure her husband's release, and this morning she informed Chief Thompson she had succeeded.

The fine and costs amount to $14.60, but Richard admits he got off lucky. He says he proposes in the future to shun the flowing bowl.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

A Sixth Street Lady Badly Injured While Beating a Carpet.

Mrs. Nellie Fowler, of Sixth street, was the victim of a very peculiar accident yesterday.

The lady was engaged in beating a carpet in the back yard, and had placed a heavy prop under the clothes line. In some manner the stick became dislodged at the top and fell, striking Mrs. Fowler squarely on the head. She was unconscious for some time, but was finally able to walk to the house. The injury is giving her considerable pain today.

Many Will Be There.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the I. O. O. F. Canton's picnic here June 5 continue to receive encouraging letters from all over the district, and this morning heard from Martha Washington Lodge No. 61, Daughters of Rebekah, at Uhrichville, stating that they would attend.

SUSPECTED OF BEING INSANE

HIS FRIENDS NONPLUSSED

Can't Account for His Strange Actions—Willis Was Employed for About a Year By the Ceramic Light Company, But Resigned.

Fred Willis, a lineman, has disappeared, and it is reported that he is insane. He has worked in the city about a year. He quit his job Saturday night, but it is believed he is still lurking about the city and some of his acquaintances report having seen him since Saturday evening though he said he was going to start for New York that night.

Willis claims Cleveland as his home. He came to this city one year ago and soon after his arrival here secured employment with the Ceramic City Light company. He was an excellent workman and steady man in the company's employ. He was strictly temperate, and was never known to touch liquor in any form until one day last week. Friday afternoon he became helplessly drunk while on duty, and he had to be sent home to sober up.

Again on Saturday Willis became intoxicated, and continued to imbibe liquor until late that night, when he went to a Second street boarding house and slept on the floor of a room which he had left two weeks previous. Another man had in the meantime engaged the room, but Willis told him he had been given permission by the landlady to sleep there. She was not aware of the man's presence until the following morning after he had taken his departure.

Saturday evening Willis drew his wages from the pay clerk at the power house, when he stated he had secured a position in New York and expected to leave East Liverpool that night. Although his employers have not seen him since, several of his acquaintances claim he has not left the city. He left a telescope filled with clothing at Jack Peake's store Saturday night, but has not yet called for it.

Judging from the man's actions it is the belief of those who are acquainted with him that he is mentally unbalanced. Men who have worked with Willis say he has often caused them to wonder at his peculiar characteristics, and that he at different times would show signs of a brain affection.

Not even the most trusted friends of the man have ever been able to learn anything from him regarding his past history. He often spoke of his parents and sisters, but never about himself.

Previous to his coming to this city Willis worked in a car shop at Pittsburg. He claimed to have been robbed by a roommate while at Pittsburg and said he lost all the clothes and money he had. When he reached this city he was almost in rags, but soon dressed himself in good style after going to work, and when he quit his position had a fine outfit. He attended church regularly and was very particular in picking his company. Willis had no friendly feeling for a man who drank, and it was his favorite hobby to denounce liquor and the saloon. It was, therefore, a great surprise to his friends to learn of him being drunk and staggering about the streets.

The strongest evidence of the man's insanity is his imagination that he is constantly being imposed upon. His fellow workmen say he constantly had fault to find with some one whom he would suspect of doing him injury. He was always talking about having other positions tendered to him and would claim he had been offered salaries of almost fabulous amounts.

It was dangerous to attempt to discredit any of the stories Willis told. He had a very fiery temper and would fight on the least provocation. However, he was not regarded as a fighting man and under ordinary circumstances was pleasant and agreeable. He made many friends during his stay in the city and was well liked. It is intimated by a former roommate that he is worried over the past, but what the cause is has never been learned. His case is a mysterious one.

JOHN C. AMMON GETS A DIVORCE

BIG BILL FOR FARM WORK

A Lad Near Salineville Claims $1,560 Is Due Him And Goes to Court. Probate Matters Which Are Receiving the Attention of Judge Boone.

Lisbon, May 22.—(Special.)—John C. Ammon was granted a divorce today from Minnie Ammon, on statutory grounds. They were married in Wellsville in 1898. Ollie Buzzard and Brade Larkin, young men of East Liverpool, were named as co-respondents.

John Russell, through his guardian, William Swarts, began an action today against the estate of the late Christina McGillivray, of Salineville. Russell is 17 years old, and since June, 1894, lived on the McGillivray farm, taking care of the stock, digging coal and assisting in farm work. He had worked for 78 months, when Miss McGillivray died last December. He claims his services were worth $20 a month over and above his board and clothing. He wants judgment for $1,560. He has presented his claim to Alexander McBane, the executor, who refused to pay it.

The late Clarence R. Henderson, of Unity township, left no will. C. P. Rothwell was appointed administrator today with $3,000 bond. C. A. Lentz, Stewart Haddon and W. M. Koch were appointed appraisers.

Pauline S. Borton, one of the trustees named in the will of the late Sarah H. Campbell, having failed to qualify, and Horace P. Borton, the other trustee, having died, Judge Boone today appointed M. H. Kelly as trustee with $5,000 bond.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL

WILL SOON BE A REALITY IN EAST LIVERPOOL.

J. T. Herbert Is Organizing a New Club Which Is Expected to Be a Hummer.

East Liverpool within the next few weeks will be sporting a base ball team, which, it is claimed, will be a credit to the city. While all the players have not as yet been selected, it is the purpose of the managers to institute a first-class club that will be able to play professional ball and play it properly.

J. T. Herbert is organizing the team. He is negotiating at present with four outside parties, all of whom he expects to sign. The others necessary to complete the aggregation will be local players. Mr. Herbert, together with Attorney G. Y. Travis, has leased ground on Thompson's hill and within the next few days work will be commenced on erecting a grand stand and cutting out a diamond.

It is the belief of the parties who have given the matter support, that a good base ball team will be a paying proposition in this city. It is also believed that the patrons of the game would rather have the grounds on this side of the river than be compelled to go over to the park every time a game is played.

Attorney Travis is acting as secretary for the new club, and is already booking games for this season. It is not yet known when the grounds will be ready, but the players will begin practicing as soon as a full lineup has been signed.

NEARING AN END

BELIEF THAT PLUMBERS' STRIKE WILL SOON BE OVER.

An Agreement Which the Employers Are Expected to Sign By Tonight.

The strike which was inaugurated by the journeymen plumbers on May 1, will in all probability be brought to a close this evening.

The first of a number of conferences was held last Friday evening and at that time the grievance committee of Trades Council was present and it looked as though a concession would have to be reached by the journeymen before a settlement could be reached.

Another meeting was held on Mon-

FELL FROM A HIGH TRESTLE AND WAS BADLY INJURED

Harry Bates, a Salineville Lad, Tumbled 35 Feet at a Tipple.

EXPLOSION AT A LISBON MINE

Terribly Scalds Young Jay Davis And Less Seriously Injures Three Others—He Will Probably Recover. The Accident Due to a Defect.

Salineville, May 22. — (Special.)—

Harry Bates, aged 15 years, is lying at his home in this city suffering from serious cuts and bruises which he sustained by a fall last evening. The lad's escape from instant death is miraculous.

Young Bates was walking across the trestle, which is 35 feet in height, leading up to the tipple of the Sterling coal mine. His foot slipped on one of the ties and he was sent sprawling to the outer edge of the high frame work.

He made a frantic effort to save himself, but was unable to catch hold of the ties in time to avoid the terrible fall he subsequently received. In his descent the boy started head downward, but fortunately his body turned and he alighted on his side. He fell on a pile of the refuse of the mine.

When the boy was picked up it was thought life was extinct. He was carried to his home, where a surgeon made an examination, with the result that he found no bones were broken. The bruises are of a dangerous nature and internal injuries are feared. However, it is not thought death will result.

Only a few years ago another boy fell from the same trestle and alighted on the same spot as did young Bates. He died from his injuries.

BOILER EXPLODES

AT A LISBON MINE AND FOUR PERSONS ARE SCALDED.

Lisbon, May 22. — (Special.)—The boiler at the Klondike mine at Card & Prosser, one mile south of this city, exploded at 6 a. m. today. Jay Davis, of Lisbon, aged 16, was terribly scalded about the face, head and back. He is a son of the late M. L. Davis. Hiram and Harry Lamborn and William Rigdon were slightly scalded. A defect in the boiler caused the explosion.

The Davis boy is expected to recover, although terribly injured.

LABOR DAY PICNIC

Its Promoters Intend to Make It a Big And Successful Affair.

The Labor Day picnic committee will meet tonight for the purpose of organizing and arranging such preliminaries as will be necessary to get the work in proper shape.

It is the intention of the committee to make the picnic this year the most successful and enjoyable ever held by Trades Council, and with that end in view propose starting early enough that nothing which will contribute to the success of the affair will be omitted.

HURT HIS HEAD

Mike Reynolds, a kilnhand at the Dresden pottery, met with an accident while at work yesterday afternoon. He was engaged in placing saggars in bungs and was standing on a sagger so as to enable him to reach the top when it crushed beneath his weight.

Part of a bung fell and struck him, cutting a gash three inches long on his hand. He was taken to the office of Dr. Brindley, where the injury was dressed.

A UNION PLANT

SUCH WILL BE FORD CITY CHINA WORKS HEREAFTER.

Conditions Have Been Far From Satisfactory Heretofore—Forced to Be Reorganized.

Within the next few weeks the large plant of the Ford City China company, operated by John Wick, will be unionized throughout the entire factory.

Negotiations have been on for several weeks between the officials of the National Brotherhood and Mr. Wick and late last week it was definitely arranged that the movement should be started at once.

Affairs at the pottery, which is an 18-kiln affair, employing several hundred men, have been anything but satisfactory, and the fact that competent men connected with the Brotherhood were extremely hard to find, has had much to do with the determination on the part of the management to unionize the concern.

Another, and perhaps the most logical reason for the change, is that it had been whispered about in Brotherhood circles that an aggressive campaign was about to be inaugurated, and experience had taught the management of the Ford City concern that this is an expensive proposition. There may be no truth in the above statement, but it is given for what it is worth.

The employees of the plant at Ford City are made up principally of farmers, with but little practical knowledge of the trades in which they are engaged, and the result has been a very poor grade of ware was produced.

Mr. Wick is advertising for men in every branch of the trade, and from that it is understood the management propose making a complete revolution.

Inquiry was made at Brotherhood headquarters, but little could be learned other than to draw out the statement from Secretary Duffy that the town would be placed on the fair list in the near future. He stated that interviews had been held with Mr. Wick by President Hughes and himself, and that the plans had been formed several days ago. President Hughes was not in his office and could not be seen.

However, nothing can be done toward the organization until the forces in the various shops can be changed and good men installed in their places.

NARROW ESCAPE

A Squall Came Up Which Badly Damaged the New Craft. No One Hurt.

London, May 22.—(Special.)—Shamrock II, was badly disabled in a squall this morning, losing her mast, rigging and gear. No one was injured. King Edward was aboard and had a miraculous escape.

CADETS DROPPED

A Number Dismissed From West Point By Official Orders.

Washington, May 22.—(Special.)—The names of the West Point cadets who were dismissed today are: Bolby, Nebraska; Cleveland, Alabama; Toller, New York; Linton, Michigan, and Mahaffy, Texas.

Elks' Outing Postponed.

The outing at Fenwood, which had been arranged by the local lodge of Elks, was postponed this morning owing to the heavy rain then falling.

GLEANINGS OF A DAY

THE LOCAL POTTERIES

Local Union No. 12, jiggermen, held its regular meeting last evening, and it was very largely attended. A committee consisting of Charles Dorff, Mike Lynch and George McNicol were appointed to have charge of the arrangements for the base ball game with the members of No. 4, which will be played at the Brotherhood picnic. The committee will select the players who will represent No. 12 and get the team into the field for practice. The game will undoubtedly be one of the best of the season, as some of the cleverest players in the city are members of the organization.

The warehousemen of the D. E. McNicol pottery have organized a base ball team and on Saturday will play the warehousemen of the Laughlin No. 2 pottery. They will line up as follows: Kearns, catcher; Herron, pitcher; Shaw, shortstop; D. Biggins, first base; A. Biggins, second; McFall, third; McKinnon, left; Knoblock, center; Corns, right. The game will be played in the East End.

The decorators and kilnhands of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery played a game of ball a few days ago and the decorators were defeated. They are not satisfied, claiming they were unable to have their best players in the game, as they were sick. Manager Thompson thinks he can defeat the kilnhands and would like to play them as soon as possible.

George Weingartner met with a painful accident while at work at the new end of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Monday afternoon. He is a jiggerman and struck the tool with his right hand, badly cutting his fingers. He went to the office of a physician, where the injury was dressed. He will be unable to work for several days.

Jake Elwell, a presser at the old end of the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery, will resign his position Thursday. He, in company with his children, Minnie and Harry, will go to Cincinnati, where they have been engaged to furnish music at a hall. They play harp and violins.

The pump has been placed in the well at the National plant and the employees are drinking water that comes from 80 feet beneath the surface. The water is excellent and of sufficient quantity to supply all the employees even in the hottest weather.

Charles Ball, who is employed as a mold runner at the new end of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, will resign his position Saturday. He claims that this town is not fast enough for him and that he will return to his home in Steubenville.

The members of Potters' Union No. 20, Steubenville, have added a sick benefit feature for the purpose of helping each other in times of sickness, and have adopted rules for governing the new feature.

J. Alberger, of Peoria, Ill., has accepted a position as moldmaker at the Union. He is now engaged in blocking cases for a new toilet set, and it is thought it will be out in three days.

Dave Wright, a packer at the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery, will resign his position Thursday and will go to Sebring, where he has accepted a position.

Ed Barrett has resigned his position as jiggerman at the E. M. Knowles plant and on Thursday will go to work at the Union. He will run the big jigger.

The Knowles, Taylor & Knowles pottery yesterday packed a car of ware for J. Prue, of Sioux City, Ia. It was shipped today.

The pressers and jiggermen at the D. E. McNicol pottery will commence work Monday on the new shape dinner set.

The new packing department being erected at the China works will be completed in a few days.

George Deacon has accepted a position as presser at the Laughlin No. 2.

Thomas Farmer, Jr., has accepted a position as presser at the Union.

POLITICAL MATTERS

Ex-Sheriff Al Drake, of Jackson county, interviewed in Columbus on the political situation in that county, said: "Jackson county gave McKinley 1600 majority last fall, and there is no reason why Governor Nash should not have as large a vote. Everybody is busy and happy in Jackson, and that means a big Republican vote. The miners, almost to a man, will so vote. They have plenty of work at good prices, and are satisfied. There is not a foreign miner in the Jackson county mines; they are real Americans; the great majority of them own their own homes, and they are prosperous."

State Senator B. F. Archer was in Wellsville this week en route for Alliance on business. Mr. Archer is not in sympathy with the Democratic movement to displace Governor Nash as candidate for his second term. He says Governor Nash will be renominated and elected.

The Marietta Register says it believes the Republicans of Washington county and the senatorial district want Judge Bright renominated. This would seem to indicate that the threatened combine of Athens and Washington counties would not materialize.

Congressman Norton came out unequivocally as an advocate of woman's suffrage in an address delivered to the members of the Tiffin Temple No. 196, Rathbone Sisters, in Toledo at a social gathering one evening last week.

At the Wyandot county Democratic convention J. C. Royer, of Tiffin, and J. C. Tobias, of Bucyrus, were endorsed for senator and judge respectively, and General E. R. Finley, of Bucyrus, for supreme judge.

Hon. D. B. Mauck, of Ironton, has been nominated for representative from Lawrence county. He is now serving his first term with great acceptability.

East End Lady Makes a Singular Discovery in Hydrant Water.

Mrs. Charles Herbert has the latest fishing experience to relate. After drawing a glass of water from the hydrant yesterday she was surprised to find that the tumbler contained a creature about one and a half inches in length, which is said to be a snake eel. It had evidently come through the water pipe from the reservoir.

Mrs. Herbert placed the fish in a bottle of water, where she thinks it may form the nucleus of an aquarium to be derived from the same source.

PAINFUL INJURY

Accidentally Received By William Chaffin While at Work This Morning.

William Chaffin met with a very painful accident while working at the National pottery this morning. He is employed in the sliphouse, and when removing a leaf of clay, one of the chambers dropped upon his thumb, tearing the end off up to the bone. The ball of the thumb was also badly lacerated, and it was necessary to remove the nail.

Mr. Chaffin was compelled to discontinue work and will probably not be back for some days.

IMPROVING THE ROAD

Thoroughfare to Beaver Creek Being Put in Good Condition.

The road commissioner and his force of workmen are putting the road between the East End and Beaver creek in excellent condition. When the bridge at Dry Run is completed this will be one of the best improved thoroughfares leading out of the city.

TUMOR REMOVED.

From the Forehead of James Means' Little Son.

Harold, the six-year-old son of James Means, of St. George street, underwent a light surgical operation yesterday evening. A fatty tumor had grown on the lad's forehead near the right temple. It was removed by Drs. Hobbs and Bailey, and the patient is getting on nicely today.

Will Lecture on Hygiene.

Dr. W. M. Calhoun will deliver a lecture on "Practical Hygiene" at the Second M. E. church tomorrow evening. This is the second of the series of free lectures which are given under the auspices of the Epworth League. Dr. Calhoun is well qualified to handle this subject, and the lecture will doubtless be an interesting one.

Successful Festival.

The festival given by the Young People of the Second U. P. church last evening was moderately successful despite the inclement weather. The attendance was fairly good and quite a neat sum was realized.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

John Smith and wife are visiting at Mansfield.

John Thompson has moved into his new residence on the Thompson boulevard. He has also commenced the erection of a new stable.

John Forbes brought the engine which he purchased at Smith's Ferry to the East End today and will start the sand crusher on the Riley place at once.

Edward Greene, who was injured by falling over a gas pipe Sunday, is not improving. His right lung is giving him much trouble, and it is feared that his internal injuries may prove serious.

Notice to Teachers.

WOMAN NEVER SAW PHILLIPS.

Nothing to Her Discredit in Connection With Stanley.

New York, May 22.—The mysterious woman, who was said to have been known as Mrs. Kirke Stanley and to have figured in the Father Phillips case, was at the office of Coroner Bausch and made a long statement under oath. Later the coroner said that after questioning the woman closely he was of the opinion that she knew nothing of the death of Father Phillips and could be of no use in the inquest.

The coroner said that the young woman met Stanley, the masseur, about a year ago in a social way. She broke her ankle soon after this and went to Stanley on a number of occasions to receive the hot air treatment. The coroner said he was convinced that there was nothing in her connection with Stanley which could be interpreted as being to her discredit. She went early last week to the Ninth avenue house to have her foot dressed and attended to, and at that time Stanley was sober. Later she had gone back there and, finding him intoxicated, she left and had not returned to the place. This, he said, would explain her so-called disappearance.

The woman, according to Coroner Bausch, never saw Father Phillips.

DEVoured BY A BEAR

Horrible Fate of Three West Virginia Children.

THE MANCLED REMAINS FOUND

Little Tots Had Wandered Away From Home—The Wild Beast Located Later and Shot by a Maryland Hunter.

Job, W. Va., May 22.—A frightful fate befell the three young children of E. P. Porterfield, a mountaineer residing about 12 miles southeast of this place. The remains were found by a searching party which had been out since Sunday evening.

The children were Mary, aged 3; Willie, aged 5, and Henry, aged 7. Shortly after noon Sunday they left home to gather flowers in a clearing near their home. Nothing more is known, but it is supposed that they wandered into the woods and becoming lost continued on their way until they were overtaken by the bear in the dense forest, three miles from their parents' home.

The bear feasted off all three of the bodies. The bones of the children had been crushed like straws and the flesh stripped off with teeth and claws. The party divided and began a search. Within a few minutes John Weldon, a Maryland hunter, discovered it in a thick clump of hemlock saplings near a small stream. A single shot ended its life. It was declared to be the largest bear ever seen in this neighborhood.

The bodies of the children, which presented a sickening sight, were carried home in sacks. The parents of the children are almost crazed with grief, their bereavement leaving them childless.

JOHNSON AFTER RAILROADS

Court Ordered Tax Assessment Boards to Examine Railway Officials, as to Values.

Cleveland, May 22.—Upon application of Mayor Johnson, Judge Strimple, of the common-pleas court, issued a writ of mandamus compelling some eight or nine county auditors, now sitting in this city, as a railroad tax assessment board, to call in railway officials to testify as to the true value of their properties. Johnson declares that the railroads have thus far been assessed at from 12 to 18 per cent of their value, while the smaller property owners in Cleveland have been taxed at the rate of 60 per cent or more. The mayor averred in his petition that the "auditors were corruptly influenced by favors to them by the railroad companies to influence their decision and avoid the making of true and correct appraisal."

The Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling was the railroad under consideration by the auditors. Before the writ was served on the auditors they had assessed the road, although the mayor notified them of the court's action.

The mayor holds, as a result, that the action of the board is illegal, and says he will now ask for an injunction prohibiting the clerk from placing the assessment of the road on record.

SERVICES FOR MRS. GAGE

They Will Be Held This Afternoon, to Be Conducted by Rev. Dr. Hillis.

Chicago, May 22.—The remains of Mrs. Lyman J. Gage arrived from Washington, accompanied by Secretary Gage, his daughter, Mrs. Pierce; Mrs. Gage's sister, Mrs. Hendee, of Yonkers, N. Y.; D. H. Burnham and Rev. N. D. Hillis, who officiated at the funeral services in Washington and who will conduct the rites at the grave.

The funeral party arrived on the Pennsylvania limited, and, transferring to the Northwestern, proceeded to Rose Hill cemetery, where the body was placed in the receiving vault. The services this afternoon will be strictly private.

EX-SOLDIER ACCUSED.

Charged at Manila With Forging Checks and Endorsements.

Manila, May 22.—E. C. Lawrence, formerly a private in the Thirty-third volunteer infantry and afterwards employed as a civilian clerk in the adjutant general's office at Manila, has been accused of forging the signature of Captain Stevens, the insular disbursing officer, to certain checks purporting to be payable to General MacArthur. On the backs of the checks were forged endorsements of General MacArthur to General Shafter and to E. C. Lawrence. Two of these checks of $200 each have been cashed at San Francisco, but another negotiated at St. Louis has been returned to Manila and pronounced spurious by Captain Stevens. Lawrence is suspected of other forgeries.

The insurgents made an unsuccessful attack upon the village of Nacatan, in Laguna province. A private of the Eighth infantry was killed in the engagement.

T OLD IN EAST LIVERPOOL

It's the Evidence of East Liverpool People, Published in East Liverpool Papers, That Has Made Such a Reputation for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present day ailments in the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to certify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known—it is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of Nerve Force. Mrs. C. L. Yager, of 152 Broadway, East Liverpool, O., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines are all good. I got them at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, as I was nervous, run down, felt miserable and the heart action was weak and irregular. The medicine made me strong and my nerves steady. The heart action regular and strong and altogether a different person, as I feel well and hearty again."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Cold Expands Them.

A civil engineer who is in Alaska has written home to Chicago that the rails on the Chilkoot Pass railway expand with the cold instead of contracting, as they would be supposed to do. A temperature ranging from 12 degrees to 40 degrees below zero F. would not appreciably affect the length of rails, but severer cold than that would be attended with expansion. This is certainly an exception to a law of nature, although water shrinks as it cools until 39 degrees F. is reached, when it begins to expand.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

It is reported that the promoters of the East Liverpool Board of Trade are discouraged and ready to quit. If that be the case they are very easily discouraged and perhaps will be wise in quitting. It is highly probable that some of them have so much business to attend to that they cannot give board matters proper attention. In that event, they will best serve the interests of the public by resigning and leaving their places to be filled by others who can devote more time and labor to the work. For it is unquestionably work that counts and makes such a body useful.

The new board of trade came into being under favorable conditions and those conditions have not changed materially. It has not lived long enough to determine that it is a failure. It should at least make the effort to show that it is alive. A live board of trade, even if it consists of only a dozen members, can be useful and make its influence felt for the city's good. About two score of names were enrolled at the recent meeting at city hall. That number of men, if they go to work in earnest, is enough to form a working board of trade, supposing no more members could be secured. But more can be secured. Every business man in the city will eagerly and gladly ally himself with an organization that will promote the city's prosperity, if he is convinced that such will be the result of the movement.

If the project of organizing and keeping alive and energetic a vigilant board of trade is suffered to "die a-borning" it will be a humiliating confession of lack of effort, and nothing else. There is enough public spirit in East Liverpool to found such a board and keep it alive, alert and ready for usefulness when the time is ripe, even if it shall appear that there is no work ahead for it just now.

Since the foregoing article was written, it is reported that prospects of a new industry have led the board of trade membership to become more hopeful and energetic. It is to be hoped that something will be accomplished that will demonstrate to East Liverpool, what has long been apparent in other cities, that a working board of trade is about the best institution a live town can have.

FALSEHOODS AFLOAT.

A specimen of the falsehoods set afloat for political purposes—and it is easy to guess by whom they are inspired—was the one which came from California soon after the arrival of Governor Nash and party there. The story was to the effect that the governor and his party were jealous because the president was receiving more attention than they, and that there was "a row in the Ohio family" in consequence. As the News Review stated at the time, the tale was absurd upon its face, and no Ohioan knowing either Governor Nash or President McKinley would credit a word of it. Still it was calculated to do harm, and injure the reputation of the Ohio executive. Perhaps that is why it was telegraphed all over the country. Doubtless some people could be found who are foolish enough to believe that the governor is the sort of man to act like a small boy with a grievance and refuse to play in the same yard with one more conspicuous than he.

The baseless falsehood has at last reached the governor, through the medium of Ohio papers sent on to him, and he is naturally indignant. Not only the governor, but every man in the party accompanying him on the western trip, brands the story as utterly without foundation. They declare that the entire journey has been pleasant and harmonious and that the jealousy and friction alleged to have been so manifest existed only in the mind of some imaginative correspondent. It needed not this denial to convince intelligent people that the tale was untrue, but we are glad it has been made, for the word of the governor and his friends will certainly count for more than that of an anonymous scribbler and character-assassin, even with those who are ready to believe the worst they hear of any public man. Certainly our Democratic brethren are exceedingly short of campaigners and campaign material when they find it necessary to lie in ambush and stab with such puny weapons.

PERPLEXED SCOTCHMEN.

It was said years ago that no one could ever get a joke into a Scotchman's head except by a surgical operation. It now appears that there are other things besides jokes which the Scotch mind finds it difficult to grasp and comprehend. For instance, the Scots don't know what to make of their one-time countryman, Andrew Carnegie. They can understand that he is wealthy—wealthier, doubtless, than any other Scotchman ever was since the world began—but they cannot understand his desire to give his wealth away. Hence his gift of $10,000,000 to the universities of Scotland perplexes them sorely. They never got anything like it before and it upsets all their calculations. They scratch their heads in bewilderment at the vastness of the gift and even wonder whether they ought to accept it.

Higher education has been difficult to obtain in Scotland and the paths leading to the universities open to comparatively few. The Scotchmen fear Carnegie will make learning cheap and common. They may even have to enlarge their universities. And university education will come so near being free that the people will be demanding that secondary education be free also. It would cost money to grant such a demand, and the Scotchman hates to part with his "siller." Hence, unless a mathematical calculation demonstrates to him that it would be both economical and wise to accept Carnegie's gift, it is likely to be declined.

The laird of Skibo might have selected four or even 400 educational institutions in America, among which to divide $10,000,000, and not one of them would have thought of doing anything but accepting and asking for more. It must surprise him to see his countrymen hesitate. But their deliberation will not worry him, as he doubtless knows where gifts of millions of round American dollars would be acceptable, even if they are not so in Scotland.

Ex-Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, of Maine, is dead. He was an able man and a good Republican. The esteem in which he was held by his constituents was demonstrated when they elected him to congress the last time, knowing full well that he was too ill to serve. Maine voters stand by their representatives who serve them well. That is one reason why they always have conspicuous men in congress.

The last cable car in New York is to be taken off the line this week. Just as the cable car was in improvement over the horse car, the whizzing trolley car is an improvement over it. It is quite possible some of us may live to see the electric vehicle replaced by something better.

If the Texas oil field keeps on extending and attracting northerners the political complexion of the Lone Star state is likely to undergo a speedy change. Oil men are live men and consequently Republicans by a large majority.

The machinists' strike is not cutting a striking figure. It bids fair to be all over before half the people are aware that it happened. The country is too busy to engage in protracted labor wars.

WELLSVILLE

DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL

A delightful entertainment was presented last night at the home of T. R. Andrews on Main street by Misses Andrews and Lillian Baron, assisted by Misses Goldie Weaver and Sophie James and Messrs Will Fulton and Walter Burnett and Prof. Laughlin. The rooms were artistically decorated.

A Faust waltz by Miss Brooke, a superb vocal selection by Rev. W. M. Fulton, of Beaver; songs by Miss Lillian Baron, Walter Burnett and Miss Lida Andrews and a solo by Prof. Laughlin were features. The music was excellent, and an enjoyable social followed.

YARD MASTERS' MEETING

Wellsville Men Prominent in a Session at Alliance.

The yardmasters of the C. & P. division of the Pennsylvania railway system, met in Alliance yesterday in quarterly session. The meeting was held in a passenger coach on track No. 7 in the Alliance yards. Fourteen yardmasters were present when the meeting was called to order by Trainmaster F. Heller, of Wellsville. Assistant Trainmasters J. C. Keck and H. Sterret, of Wellsville, were also in attendance.

The meeting was an interesting and profitable one. Matters pertaining to the handling of trains were discussed in detail. Short addresses were made and impromptu talks on topics of importance.

WELLSVILLE NOTES.

The bowling match between the Ramblers and Crescents was called off last night. Tonight the Imperials will meet the Eclipse.

Making It Rather Personal.

This is credited as one of General Lew Wallace's Turkish jokes: There lived in Stamboul, Turkey, a well to do Turk named Ismail Ismail Hassam. He was endowed with oriental wit that stood him well in hand when he was in a tight place. A neighbor called on Ismail one day and wanted to borrow his donkey to use an hour. Ismail made a low salaam and said:

"Neighbor, I am sorry, but my boy started on the donkey an hour ago to Scutari. By now he is gayly trotting over the hills far from the sacred precincts of Stamboul."

Just as Ismail finished his speech a donkey's loud bray was heard in the stable, which was under the same roof as Ismail's house, but in the rear. The neighbor said:

"Ah, I hear your donkey bray."

Ismail protested that his neighbor's ears were deceived and that the noise was not a donkey's bray. Then the donkey, which was supposed to be jogging along toward Scutari, brayed twice loudly. It was too much, and the neighbor cried:

"Oh, that is your donkey, Ismail. Allah help me. I can now borrow him."

Then Ismail said:

"Which do you believe is lying, the donkey or me?"

Why Spiders Are Not Insects.

The spider is not an insect, though probably nine people out of ten would class it under this term. With scorpions and mites spiders form a class in the animal kingdom known as Arachnida. This name is derived from a mythical personage called Arachne, the daughter of a purple dyer of Lydia, who was fabled to have challenged Minerva to a trial of skill in spinning. So indignant was the goddess at this act of boldness that she forthwith transformed the hapless challenger into a spider, presumably in order that she might have the best possible opportunity of practicing the art on which she prided herself so much.

Spiders differ from insects in five main particulars. Their eyes are simple instead of compound, they have eight legs in place of six, they do not pass through the metamorphoses which are characteristic of insects, they have no antennae and their breathing is accomplished by means of organs which combine the functions of lungs and gills, instead of by tubes pervading their bodies. These points of distinction are sufficient to determine the fact that it is impossible to class spiders as insects.

Like a Man.

Soon after the conscript law was passed by the Confederate congress Captain Slack was appointed enrolling officer for the parish of Claiborne, with orders to have its provisions duly executed. His manner of execution was the reverse of that suggested by his name and created a lively sensation among the "bomb proofs," who, finding the pointed arguments of his muskets irresistible, moved rapidly and in a right line toward the front. Not long after his arrival his sister had occasion to visit an old lady whose son was notoriously of the peace persuasion. She soon missed his familiar presence, and the following conversation occurred:

"Mrs. —, where is John?"

"Gone to fight for his country, child."

"Indeed, I thought he was one of the exempts."

"Lor, honey, Caddin Slack don't know no exempts. The other day I see his men a-gallop down the road. I hollered to John they war comin and told him the chimney was a good place."

"Twasn't no use, though, for they found him quicker than a cat does a mouse."

"Well, Mrs. —, what did John do?"

"Do? Why, he came down and 'list-like a man.'"—Lost Cause.

The Pope's Official Rings.

The pope has three special rings for his use. The first is generally rather a plain gold one, with an intaglio or cameo ornament. This is called the papal ring. The second one, called the pontifical ring, because used only when the pope pontificates or officiates at grand ceremonies, is an exceedingly precious one. The one worn on these occasions by Pius IX was made during the reign of Pius VII, whose name is cut on the inside. It is of the purest gold, of remarkably fine workmanship, set with a very large oblong diamond, it cost 30,000 francs (£1,250) and has a contrivance on the inside by which it can be made larger or smaller to fit the wearer's finger.

The fisherman's ring, so called because it has a figure of St. Peter in a bark throwing his net into the sea, is a plain gold ring with an oval face, bearing the name of the reigning pope engraved round and above the figure of the apostle. The ring weighs 1½ ounces. It was first a private and not an official ring, though it has been used in the latter way since the fifteenth century and is now the official seal of the popes and the first among the regalia.—Golden Penny.

The Yaws.

On the west coast of Africa the natives call the raspberry a yaw. It happens that one of the pleasing diseases that come out from that quarter of the globe is characterized by dusky red spots that appear on the body and soon grow into ulcers about the size and looks of the raspberry. So this disease is called the yaws. It is contagious and downright disagreeable. White sailors bring it back with them to their own discomfort and the disgust of those at home. Yaws prevails also in the Fiji islands and in Samoa, but in these two places children mainly are attacked, and the natives regard the disease in the same light as civilized persons look at measles—almost a certainty to have and the sooner over with the better.

BADLY MIXED MATTERS

NEW TOWN OFFICERS OF CHESTER HAVE THEIR TROUBLES.

Have Met Repeatedly to Be Sworn And Must Do So Again.

The first officers of the town of Chester have mixed things up in a very unpleasant manner. The present status of affairs seems to indicate that the newly chosen officers will have a battle on among themselves before they are all installed. Expressions of displeasure from the citizens are heard.

Following the usual custom the officers say that, out of courtesy to the mayor, they had been waiting two weeks for Mayor Dunn to signify in order that he might administer the oath to them. Monday at they met for the third time at Justice Johnston's office, where it had been agreed that the installation should take place, but the mayor failed to appear. They waited there until 10 o'clock. Yesterday afternoon they were informed that Mayor Dunn was qualified at about 9 o'clock Monday night at the home of Erastus Marshall, who is a notary public.

Today the councilmen received notice to assemble at John Marshall's stand tonight, where Erastus Marshall would administer the oath of office. George A. Arner had already lifted before leaving town Monday morning, and as soon as the notice was received Joseph N. Finley went to Squire Johnston's office and was informed that the councilmen say they will do likewise and the proposed meeting tonight bids fair to be another one.

Some of the councilmen state that if the mayor fails to meet with them they will qualify and make the appointments without him.

HANCOCK COAL LANDS

THEY HAVE BEEN OPTIONED BY AL McDONALD, OF CHESTER.

Parties Making Tests in the Holiday's Cove District.

McDonald, of Chester, has just secured options for several thousand acres of coal land in Hancock county. The land had nearly all been under options which expired in the last few years. Before the old company had time to renew the options Mr. McDonald has leased the territory for his company.

Tests are now being made in the Holiday's Cove district, on which the options had been taken by Mr. McDonald, of Florence, Pa. A number of test holes will be drilled on these lands.

Thomas Campbell holds options on 100 acres in another portion of the county. They expire in August. They were taken at the rate of $18 per acre, half of which was to be paid in cash, or they cease conditionally at a time.

MINERS ARE STRIKING

Operations Begun on the Baxter Farm, Near Fairview.

The miners at the Marquette Coal company's mines at New Cumberland went out on a strike for higher wages. Monday a number of Italians who were brought to New Cumberland to work refused to stay when they learned the condition of affairs and all left at noon yesterday. Nearly a hundred miners are affected by the strike.

WILD CAT WELL

Operations Begun on the Baxter Farm, Near Fairview.

McCoy Bros. begun work today on a wild cat well on the Lawrence Baxter farm near Fairview. The blazer well, which was delayed several weeks by shortage of casing, is expected in tomorrow.

It was predicted that this well would be a 50-barrel producer, but so far there are no signs of oil.

CHESTER AND VICINITY.

Roy Swearingen, of Poe, Pa., was among Chester friends today.

William Metz, of Gavers, O., has accepted a position at Allison grocery store.

Rev. Mr. Phipps, of New Castle, Pa., is visiting his son, Rev. Charles E. Phipps.

Mrs. Samuel Allison has returned from a short visit to her sister, Mrs. J. Glass, near Fairview.

Mrs. Susan Melvin, widow of the late Henry Melvin, died at her home in New Cumberland, Monday, after a long illness, aged 63.

Ed Jones, who was formerly employed by T. B. Murphy, has accepted a position with C. M. Smith as manager of the cafe at the Rock Springs park.

Eight plants at New Cumberland paid out $20,000 Saturday, and there were lively times. Three men were put on the police force for extra police duty.

Hugh Sutherland, foreman in the Marquette coal bank, at New Cumberland, had his arm broken last week. Mr. Sutherland states that this is the fifth time he has had the same arm broken.

LOST HIS SIGHT

JAMES McDOLLE HAS SUDDENLY GONE BLIND.

First One Eye Failed and Then the Other—A Specialist Now Treating Him.

James McDole, of May street, is totally blind. His case is a most peculiar one. Mr. McDole is nearly seventy years of age, but only a few days ago he could see as well as he ever did in his life. The other day he picked up a newspaper and started to read. He noticed that he couldn't see apparently as well as usual. Incidentally he closed his left eye, when he discovered that he could see nothing whatever with his right eye.

Although he has worn glasses for a number of years he never before had any symptoms of blindness, and the discovery came as a great shock. Fate was destined to treat the aged man even more cruelly still and on the next day the sight in the other eye faded out. For the last four days he has been in total darkness. During that time, however, Mr. McDole has made three trips to Pittsburg where he is being treated by the famous eye specialist, Dr. Lippincott, who believes that his sight can be restored. Mr. McDole is well known in this city, having resided on May street for more than 12 years. He has the sympathy of a large number of friends.

NEARLY READY TO START

The Louthan Stilt Works Almost Completed—Fire Already Started.

Fire was placed under the boiler for the first time at the Louthan stilt works today. A small amount of clay which will be used for tests has already been received. It is thought that the work on the interior will be completed and the plant put in operation in about a week.

The School Exams.

The closing examinations have commenced at the West End school and the small boy looks as though he had troubles of his own.

West End Personals.

Miss Mattie Fife, of Pleasant street, is ill threatened with typhoid fever. Herbert Smith is spending a few days visiting friends at Kittanning, Pa.

Dillard Smith has removed from the Lisbon road to the Croxall property on Third street.

John DeBee has moved his household effects from the Wellsville road to Jethro street.

PATRIOTIC CHURCHMEN

Philadelphia, May 22.—The commissioners to the Presbyterian general assembly Tuesday gave vent to a spontaneous burst of patriotic enthusiasm, which found voice in the hearty rendition of a national anthem. It was a fitting conclusion to a masterly address delivered by Rev. Dr. Charles O. Thompson, secretary of the home mission board. The report of the committee on home missions had been read and Dr. Thompson arose to make the usual appeal for aid, which developed into an oration and aroused the assembly to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

A statement in the committee's report that over 3,000 churches failed to give directly to the home mission board aroused the ire of the commissioners representing self-supporting synods and presbyteries, and after a brief but lively debate the objectionable paragraph was eliminated. Rev. Dr. Hugh K. Walker, chairman of the committee, in discussing the report, declared that unless the church supported its home missions the foreign missions would fail. The report urged congress to act on the anti-polygamy amendment to the constitution before the Mormons secure the balance of political power in any additional states. Both morning and afternoon sessions were devoted to routine business.

The woman's board of home missions met in the Witherspoon building and elected the old board of officers. Besides these, a vice president was elected from each of the several states of the union.

A meeting was held last night at the Academy of Music in the interest of the board of home missions. The speakers were Rev. H. R. Marsh, Point Barrows, Alaska; Rev. Dr. S. Hale Young, Alaska; Rev. James Hayes, Kamiah, Idaho; Rev. Dr. W. S. Holt, Portland, Ore.; Rev. Dr. Thomas D. Logan, Springfield, Ills.; Rev. Dr. J. Milton Green, San Juan, Porto Rico.

COMPANY STORE ORDERS

Prohibitive Tax Bill May Come Up For Passage In Pennsylvania House.

Harrisburg, May 22.—Among other proceedings Tuesday, in the house, the resolution proposing to amend the constitution by striking out the word fifty in section 16, article 2, thus providing for a variable number of senatorial districts, as in the house of representatives, passed finally.

The Hutt bill amending the Brooks high license law to prohibit the sale or gift of wines, ales, beer or liquor to females, to be taken from the premises, was defeated.

The bill for the prevention of idiosyncrasy passed finally.

The house last night, by a vote of 84 by 83, adopted a motion offered by Mr. Bliss, of Delaware, to lay on the table the Cressy concurrent resolution to adjourn finally on June 14.

Mr. Bliss reported from the rules committee a resolution, which was adopted, making a special order for the Fox capital bill. The measure may be taken up next Tuesday for second reading and the following day on third reading and final passage.

The senate committee on finance gave another public hearing Tuesday afternoon on the house bill known as the company store bill, which places a prohibitive tax on all orders, checks or other paper representing wages of employees, and the committee afterward decided to report the bill favorably to the senate with a few amendments. The amendments will not affect the original purpose of the bill. Unless the progress is impeded the measure may come up for final passage next week.

The consideration of bills on the general calendar was the order of business in the senate last night, but no bills on third reading were taken up. An effort will be made to clear the calendar today, after which the senate probably will adjourn for the week.

The company store bill, which has passed the house, was reported favorably by the finance committee.

TOBACCO IS TABOOED

United Brethren Ministers Not Allowed to Use It—Conference Adjourned.

Frederick, Md., May 22.—The general quadrennial conference of the United Brethren Church in Christ, which has been in session here since May 9, adjourned last evening, to meet in Topeka, Kan., in 1905.

Tuesday's business sessions were presided over by Bishops Kephart and Mills.

The special orders of the day were the apportionment of the number of delegates to the quadrennial conferences and the arrangement of the annual conferences over which the bishops preside. These evoked much animated discussion, as there were five bases of representation before the body. Rev. R. H. Turner's basis was finally adopted, as follows:

"All conferences having less than 1,000 members shall be entitled to one lay and one ministerial delegate; 1,000 and less than 3,000, two lay and two ministerial delegates; 3,000 and less than 6,000, three lay and three ministerial delegates; 6,000 and less than 10,000, four lay and four ministerial delegates; 10,000 and less than 15,000, five lay and five ministerial delegates; 15,000 and less than 20,000, six lay and six ministerial delegates, and all over 20,000, seven lay and seven ministerial delegates."

After a warm discussion an amendment was adopted to the church discipline to the effect that hereafter no minister of the church shall be allowed to use tobacco in any form, and those who are now addicted to its use must desist.

In the Apostles Creed the word "hell" was modified and will in future be rendered "hades."

Rev. W. McKee was elected to the new office of general secretary.

BAPTIST ANNIVERSARIES

Some Time Devoted to the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society.

Springfield, Mass., May 22.—The second day's sessions of the May anniversaries of the Baptist church opened Tuesday in the Highland Baptist church with a meeting devoted to the Women's Baptist Home Mission society, at which Mrs. J. N. Crouse presided.

The address of welcome was delivered by the Rev. George W. Quick, pastor of the Highland church, in which the meetings are being held. Mrs. Crouse responded on behalf of the society. A number of papers were read.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. A. H. Barber, treasurer of the society. It showed a deficit for the year. In the afternoon Mrs. J. M. Crouse delivered the president's address. This was followed by addresses from missionaries.

SOON TO START HOME

Mrs. McKinley's Condition Continues to Improve.

SCHOOL CHILDREN REVIEWED

President Greeted by the Little Ones and Made a Brief Speech—Later Visited the Presidio—Interrupted Program May Be Concluded.

San Francisco, May 22.—The convalescence of Mrs. McKinley is very rapid and she is fast regaining her normal strength. She was able to sit up Tuesday and read the papers. So marked was her improvement that it is very probable the presidential party will start for Washington next Saturday. If no untoward developments should occur it is thought that Mrs. McKinley will be able to endure the journey by that time.

San Francisco, May 21.—Mrs. McKinley passed a very good afternoon and the president was very cheerful over the improved condition.

President McKinley reviewed nearly 50,000 school children of this city. Both sides of Van Ness avenue, from Jackson to Market streets, were lined with cheering and enthusiastic children as the president and members of his party and local officials in carriages were driven from Jackson to Market and back the avenue to Jackson. The president was the recipient of a continuous ovation. Almost every child had been provided with a good-sized American flag, and their voices and flags were worked in unison. Each little girl wore white and most of them had red sashes. Thousands of the youngsters had gathered large bouquets, which they threw at the president as he passed along.

In some cases every pupil from a certain school carried a bouquet of the same variety and color of flowers. Some classes spread the flowers in the street, that the president and his party might literally ride among the roses.

About half way between California and Sacramento streets the president's carriage brought up and the other conveyances came to a standstill.

"Speech, speech, speech," rang out along the avenue, and the children swarmed about by the thousands. President McKinley sat in his carriage, reaching down and shaking their hands for several minutes. He finally rose and was greeted with cheers. The president then spoke briefly.

After reviewing the school children President McKinley and party drove to the Presidio.

General Shafter and members of his staff were on hand to welcome the commander-in-chief, and he was escorted about the grounds and shown the camps where thousands of volunteers going to and coming from the Philippines have been quartered, as well as the camps of the regulars.

If no unforeseen circumstances prevent the president tomorrow will attend the reception by the Knights Templar of California. The reception will be preceded by a parade of the Knights in full uniform as an escort to the president. Other features of the original program will be carried out during the president's stay. If Mrs. McKinley continues to improve.

COL. MILLS SUSTAINED.

Five West Point Cadets to Be Dismissed and Six Suspended.

Washington, May 22.—Secretary Root approved the action of the board of officers at West Point, which recommended the dismissal of five cadets and the suspension of six others. This sustains the course of Colonel Mills and the other officers in the recent disturbances at the academy.

The names of the cadets dismissed and suspended will be announced at the military academy about noon today.

Colonel Mills, superintendent of the military academy, had a long consultation with the secretary of war relative to recent disorders. The papers in the cases of the cadets who have been tried for offenses against the authorities have been in the department for some time, but have never been acted upon. Superintendent Mills explained the condition at the academy, insisting that many of the published reports were exaggerated. The present difficulty grew out of the attempt to suppress hazing and the restrictions that have been made in this direction since Colonel Mills became superintendent.

Explosion in a Bank.

Cambridge, Mass., May 22.—What the police believe was a daring attempt to rob the Cambridgeport National bank, of this city, by the use of dynamite in broad daylight, was revealed at 10:45 a. m. by an explosion in the bank, which blew out the side of the office, damaged other parts of the building and in which Cashier William F. Roaf sustained a bad wound on the head.

Practically Approved the Budget.

London, May 22.—The house of commons, by 300 to 123 votes, rejected the motion of Sir Henry Fowler, Liberal, which was supported by the Liberal leaders, disapproving the budget proposals. Mr. Balfour, the government leader, announced that the government would regard the adoption of the motion as a vote of non-confidence. The Irish abstained from voting.

Schley Hurried to Sick Son.

New York, May 22.—Rear Admiral W. S. Schley arrived here on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, having hurried across the ocean on receipt of news that his son, Dr. Winfield Scott Schley, was ill. Dr. Schley, who has been suffering from blood poisoning at St. Luke's hospital, was reported to be out of danger.

BASEBALL

Now that the eastern and western teams of both the National and American leagues have come together in their initial intersectional clash it will be easy for the critics to determine with more accuracy the respective strength of the different teams.

In the American league George Stalling's Wolverine hunters have certainly set a lively pace and have played exceptionally good baseball. Stalling cut his eye teeth in baseball many years ago, and only for a trivial misunderstanding between himself and the powers that be in Brooklyn he might be the manager of the League champions today.

Stalling and Ebbets did not look through the same style of baseball spectacles. The result was that George went west to grow up with the country. It is interesting to mention that he has kept pace with the development of the country, and his early experience in the east and south is standing him in good stead these days.

Yet what a difference there is in the make up of the Wolverine team of today and the leather cracking team of a dozen years or more ago! In those days a slugger was the only real requisite, while Stalling's aggregation now is a well rounded one, with every man on the team capable of playing scientific ball in all that the term implies.

In Casey, Holmes and Gleason Detroit has a trio of old eastern favorites capable of doing excellent work. While Casey is not much bigger than a rabbit, this keeps him close to the ground, and he is not likely to take mental balloon ascensions, which happens so frequently to the average ball player when he finds himself in a tight place.

And, talking about those soaring flights and partial unconsciousness as to what is happening, I think that St. Seymour, now doing outfielding service at Washington, is about the worst sample ever seen on the diamond. If Seymour could keep his feet on the ground and his head between his shoulders instead of in the clouds, he could pitch ball today with any of them.

Of the other ex-League stars who are now doing splendid service for the newer organization none of them is making a better record than the veteran pitchers. Of course Lajole at Philadelphia is a whole team in himself, and if there has been a better all around player on the field in the last few years I have failed to notice him. He was cast in the baseball mold, and handling the bat and ball comes as natural to "Nap" as watermelons to the appetite of the southern picaninny.

Little Keeler of Brooklyn is another natural ball player, and George Davis, the captain-manager of the New York team, is another. They simply love to play the game and would not be happy if divorced from it.

Years of close study of the game show that players of this sort are most valuable aids to the club owners. The player who goes into the game as the average man goes to his daily labor, simply because he has to do it to gain the necessities and luxuries of life, doesn't, as a general rule, last very long. There are few tasks harder for a man than the playing of baseball for a living and yet having a dislike for the game. Fortunately players of this sort are few and far between.

There were few more studious players than the veteran James O'Rourke. Nearly every minute of his time when not given to baseball and repose he spent with his books. He had a book or paper in his hands most of the time when not on the diamond. They say that young O'Rourke, his son, who is playing on the Yale team, is a chip of the old block. The youngster in the games he has played this year shows many tricks of the trade seldom found at the disposal of the average young college player.

It is pleasing to note this year that the umpires are showing more backbone than they did last season. This applies to the larger as well as to the smaller leagues. That the umpire is the absolute ruler of the game has been one of the hardest baseball lessons to learn. That he has not been sustained heretofore is due entirely to the weak-kneed policy of the club owners which seeks the advancement of the standing of their own teams in preference to the actual welfare of the game.

The umpire should be sustained and encouraged by the public and club owners until he has shown that he is incompetent. When this occurs, let him go.

The old time rivalry between the New York and Brooklyn teams has broken out afresh after years of quiet. Brooklyn rubbed it into New York so hard for several years that there was little interest when the two teams met.

Now it is a good thing that a river separates the players and enthusiasts of the two teams. It does not now require much talk to start a conflagration when a New York and Brooklyn crank come together.

The recent forfeit game to New York by Brooklyn was unfortunate, as it only served to make the feeling more keen between them. There is little doubt that Keeler scored the winning run in that ninth inning and that Hank O'Day, the umpire, did not see it, as his attention was directed toward third base, where the play to retire Dally was made. It will require only two or three disagreements of this sort to start a riot some day, and, as baseball is just picking up again in New York, a disgraceful outbreak would injure the game beyond repair.

Manager Davis has brought out two new players this season who give more or less promise. Matthewson, the young college man, has pitched about the best ball in the country to date. He is as strong as a bull, a good all around athlete, and he has more speed and better control than any other young player of his experience I ever saw.

His delivery is easy and graceful, and he is as fresh and has the same speed at the end of the game that he had in the first inning. His comrades think him the find of recent years, and when he goes into the box the team counts the game as good as won.

Confidence of that sort wins many a baseball battle. Nelson, the second base man, whose name is really Kellogg, does not seem to have as good a chance to make a record. He is a little chap, a bundle of nerves. This fear or stage fright may wear off in time, and if it does Nelson may turn out to be an acceptable successor to Kid Gleason.

Matthewson is another college player who has illustrated the fallacy of the old saying that college men can field all right, but that as batsmen and pitchers they cannot stand fast company. There are few veteran professionals in the business today who can give any points to Matthewson, either on nerve or ability to pitch and to hit the ball. GEORGE E. STACKHOUSE.

Now that Jacob Schaefer has returned to this country from abroad the billiard fraternity will have an opportunity to see the famous expert perform some of the new shots that he evolved while in Europe. Schaefer's visit on the continent was very successful. While in Paris he found a large number of foreign cue manipulators who imagined that they knew something about caroms, masses and "round the table" maneuvers. They proved "easy meat" for the "wizard," and their golden shekels will help materially in paying the crack billiardist's household expenses. Schaefer is now in Chicago. He will busy himself with the planning of his summer campaign in the United States.

JACOB SCHAEFER, THE "WIZARD."

The "wizard" wants, first, to play a match against his former rival, George Slosson. When in New York, Schaefer said:

"I should like to get a series of games with Slosson. He won't play, however. He is in business, and there is more money for him in his billiard room than in matches."

While abroad Schaefer defeated Andorran, the Hungarian champion, after giving him 200 in 500 points. He performed sensationally in the Academie Amerique, Paris, making a world's top notch record by running 16 points in three cushion caroms against the Frenchman, Barutel. At the 18 inch balk game Schaefer ran 281 buttons.

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent backaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from ills which Wine of Cardui cures. Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring Cardui period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear. Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is indorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

Cairo, Ky., Sept. 6, 1899. I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old and have been sick all my life. I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do work for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.

PORTER IS DEAD

Morristown, N. J.

BEEN ILL OF DIABETES

Orders Sent to Gen. Brooke to Cooperate With Gen. Webb In Arranging a Military Funeral—Old Controversy Recalled.

New York, May 22.—General Fitz
Porter, the veteran fighter, died at Morristown, N. J. For a week he had been very ill with diabetes.
At General Porter's bedside were
two sons and Dr. G. S. Wilds. The cause of General Porter's death was ascribed to Washington and this fact was reported to General Brooke to co-operate with General Alexander S. Webb in arranging a military funeral for the dead
general. Up to four years ago General Porter was a conspicuous figure
in New York city. Although past 70
he was straight as an Indian and a brilliant military looking person.
His brilliant military career was ended by his being cashiered from the army for his action at the second battle of Bull Run. He was honorably reinstated about 23 years afterward. Discussion of the Porter incident raged for years, and the leading generals of the war were divided over it. General John Pope made the charges against General Porter, which were disbelieved of orders. A court martial sustained the charges. It was General Grant himself who finally, after a long investigation, publicly honored General Porter.

TO KEEP CHINA INTACT

Proposed Nations Agree Not to Seize Territory, if Indemnity Is Defaulted.

Washington, May 22.—The state department has been made fully acquainted by Mr. Rockhill with the character of the propositions relative to the floating of the indemnity loan at Peking. While grave objections are perceived to the Russian project for a joint guarantee of the loan, because of the immense difficulty of securing the assent of congress to an agreement which would hand over the United States with foreign nations for more than a quarter of a century at the least, there is nothing in Mr. Rockhill's instructions that would cause him to antagonize
the proposition, provided it is fully
of the loan, while assuring the integrity of China. It is suggested that these objections can best be secured by authorizing China to deliver to each nation bonds bearing 4 per cent interest to the face value of that nation's indemnity claim. The nation holding the bonds could dispose of them at its pleasure. It could affix its own guarantee and sell the bonds on the open market.
The claim for the collection and distribution of interest contains the term of the guarantee of Chinese integrity. It is proposed that an international board of financiers collect periodically from China the amount of income which the ministers at Peking have decided can be extracted without ruining the country, this money to be divided up between the powers in the shape of interest in exact proportion to the bond held by them.
In case of default by China each nation will lose its proportion, and a special covenant will bind each power to refrain from individual action against China to secure the payment of the arrears or to seize territory in lieu of interest in default. It is calculated that this each power will find it to its interest to prevent the division of China.

ROOSEVELT AND HANNA.

They Were Guests at Reception and Luncheon in Buffalo.

Buffalo, May 22.—Vice President
Roosevelt and Senator Mark A.
Hanna met the business men of the city at a reception given in their honor by the Merchants' Exchange.
The exchange was decorated with flags and streamers and 250 merchants welcomed the guests with lusty cheers when President C.
Plethworth escorted them in. The vice president and the senator both spoke and extended their congratulations for what had been accomplished at the exposition. After the speeches
the men shook hands with the vice president and Mr. Hanna.

After the meeting the executive committee of the exchange entertained Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Hanna and the officers of the exposition at luncheon at the Ellicott club.

AMALGAMATED CONVENTION.

Committee May Be Appointed to Revise the Constitution.

Milwaukee, May 22.—The convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers met here, with 250 delegates present.

The relations of the organization with the recently organized United States Steel corporation are believed to be of vital importance to wage
workers in general.

President T. J. Shaffer said:
"There are many important resolutions affecting the constitution which are to come up, but I cannot say which ones are considered the most important. I am looking for the appointment of a committee by this convention which will revise the constitution to meet changed conditions.
This has never been done before in
the history of the association."

Mrs. Bonine Held For Murder.

Washington, May 22.—The coroner's jury that has been investigating the murder of James S. Ayres, the tensio office clerk, returned a verdict to the effect that Ayres was killed during a conflict between himself and Mrs. Lola Ida Henri Bonine.
The woman was held for the grand jury. She refused to make affidavit to her confession.

Jacquelin, the famous cycling champion of France, who recently defeated
"Major" Taylor, the colored American
champion, in Paris, now has a clear
title to the championship of the world.
His decisive victory over the "majah"
in the one kilometer race in the Parc
des Princes leaves no doubt as to the mooted question of international superiority, for Taylor had placed himself
in a class of his own here in America.
Both men had worsted the best of the German and Italian racers previous to their meeting, and from Jacque-

JACQUELIN, WORLD'S CHAMPION CYCLER.
lin's fine showing against the speedy Taylor it is evident that he will be able to maintain his superiority for
some time to come.

Taylor's defeat was a great surprise
to Americans. It was confidently expected that when he returned to this country in July to participate in the circuit races of the N. C. A. he would carry the Frenchman's scalp at his belt.

Jacquelin's victorious career is largely due to his wonderful ability to spurt
at the finish. It was his burst of speed
in the final yards of his race with Taylor that netted him the triumph. No matter how rapid or exhausting the early part of the race, Jacquelin always has something "up his sleeve" for
the end.

The veteran Tom Cooper went to Paris, knowing full well the French-
man's power in this line and trained accordingly. The disastrous result of his trip, however, is a matter of cycling
history.

Racing swimmers throughout the country will have much to attract their attention during the summer. Athletic clubs and associations are fixing dates
for aquatic meets. Championship events
in the various classes in different sections of the United States will be as
fiercely fought as in previous years.

The Amateur Athletic union has always manifested considerable interest
in swimming. The championship races of the organization will be held in Bu-falo July 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13. The lake in Delaware park in the exposition city will be the scene of the competitions.

The A. A. U. swimming championships include the following events: One hundred, 220 and 440 yards, half mile
and mile. Handicap races of the same
description are scheduled.

The racing feature of swimming
should by all means be maintained
by lovers of the splendid pastime.
There is a tendency toward the dragging down of swimming to the mere summer resort diversion. The peri-cious effects of this action, if it be continued, may be recognized immediately
by those interested. Swimming properly indulged in is a wonderful developer of the human body. Every muscle fiber is called into action, and
the value of the cool water's stimulating effect on the system cannot be overestimated.

MEMORIAL DAY SPORT

Many Big Athletic Events to Occur on May 30.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS IN LINE.

Events in Various Cities—Edgren of
California at Knickerbocker A. C.'s
Meet at Bergen Point, N. J.—Famous
Jumpers to Appear.

For the last few years May 30 has
been considered throughout the length
and breadth of the United States as
one of the most important days of the season in sport. The outdoor sportsman then begins to realize how it feels
to "stretch his wings," and as a result
it has become the custom in all the
large cities of the country to hold a galaxy of recreative events on Memorial day.

The holiday this year will be celebrated in New York, Chicago, Boston,

J. T. SPRAKER.

St. Louis, Philadelphia and San Francisco with athletic events of a very interesting character.

The carnival of the Knickerbocker
Athletic club on its grounds at Bergen Point, N. J., will be one of the most important of the events in the east.
Chicago is preparing a series of bicycle races. One of the cycling contests will be a 100 mile road race. The largest list of prizes ever awarded in a road
race in this country is being arranged.
All the colleges are getting their athletes in trim, and many track and field competitions in which records will be closely crowded have been scheduled.

Of course the baseball "fans" demand a suitable menu for the first summer holiday. The National, American, Eastern and Western leagues, together with the colleges and athletic clubs, have arranged attractive features for followers of diamond doings.

The meet of the Knickerbocker Athletic club will be remarkable in many ways. Many of the best men who figured in the recent intercollegiate championship competition on Berkeley oval, New York, will appear in their specialties. The entire track team
of Yale university will be on hand. J.
T. Spraker, the star high jumper from
New Haven, has been brought to the top notch in training by Mike Murphy,
and the agile collegian will probably
duplicate some of his noteworthy feats.
Ray C. Emry, the world's champion
in long jumps, will endeavor to break
the international record for three standing jumps. R. W. Edgren, the well known California athlete, is preparing for the competitions.

In the all around weight throwing
contest the athletic giants of America
will be seen. Trainer Murphy has entered his formidable Yale trio, Richard
Sheldon, Fred Beck and Stillman.
These men are wonders in physical strength and development, but they will be pushed to the limit in holding their own against the westerner, Ed-
gren.

George H. Ketcham, owner of Cresceus, 2:04, recently purchased a large
block of red granite and will erect it
as a monument over the resting place
of the famous trotting stallion and sire,
Robert McGregor, 2:17½.

Robert McGregor died at the Ketch-
am farm, Toledo, three years ago, and
the remains of the grand old trotter are buried in a pretty grove that will be used as a cemetery for all his celebrated descendants that pass away.

Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas will breed all of his mares, 10 or 12, to Wilkes and Electioneer stallions.

The 5 year-old mare by John R. Gentry, 2:00½, out of Lizzie Rider, the dam of Rose Croix, 2:11½, has been bred to Alton, 2:09½.

George A. Davis of Pleasanton, Cal., looks for Key Direct, 2:10, to take a record of 2:05 in one of his eastern engagements this season. Previous to this year Key Direct was bred to 31 mares
and has 31 living foals.

The Vanity of Men.

"Vanity, vanity, all is vanity!" saith the preacher. Which is usually interpreted to mean, "All women are vanity." In point of fact, the observant
are agreed that there is no sex in vanity, more than in mind. An elevator attendant not long ago glanced disgust-
edly at a man who during a long trip
up ten or more stories occupied the entire time at the mirror. He curled the ends of his mustache, arranged his tie,
adjusted his hat at a more becoming
angle and was altogether so absorbed
that he was carried beyond his destination and had to walk down a flight of stairs.

Said the elevator man to a woman in the car: "They say that a woman can't go by a looking glass without looking at herself, but as far as I can see she ain't in it with the men. A woman never gets a chance to look in that glass, for the men keep it busy all the time."

The man who carries a tiny comb or brush in his pocket for use in public places is by no means exceptional. He may be seen on the cable cars, the "L"
and in elevators brushing his mustache
and eyebrows with as much care as a woman could give to the arrangement
of her curly front locks blown into disorder by the wind. Of course neatness
is commendable, but there is always a touch of the ludicrous in a man's taking the little case from his pocket, extracting the comb and coaxing his hirsute adornments into a more becoming
curve.—New York Tribune.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Four- teen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic
rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around, but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why

NO. 674.

AN ORDINANCE to improve Bradshaw avenue from Avondale street to Ambrose avenue.

Be it ordained by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio (two-thirds of all the members elected
thereto concurring) as follows:

Section 1. That the improvement
of Bradshaw avenue, from Avondale
street to Ambrose avenue, be proceeded with in accordance with the resolution to improve said avenue, passed
the 26th day of March, 1901, and the plans and specifications on file in the office of the city engineer, by constructing the necessary storm water sewers
of brick and terra cotta pipes, grading,
cutting curbs and paving the roadway
with best fire brick set on edge, and improving said street as called for in
the resolution to improve.

Section 2. That the cost and expense of the said improvement, including damages, if any, assessed in favor of any land owner, interest on bonds issued, advertising, etc., shall
be assessed on the lots and lands
bounding and abutting on the said
street, between the above named
points, per foot front as called for in
the resolution to improve (and in accordance with the law and ordinances
on the subject of assessments.) The assessments therefor shall be paid in ten (10) annual installments, if deferred, and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed. Bonds
will be issued in anticipation of the collection of the said assessments unless the property owners pay their assessment before the bonds are issued and within the time specified in the
assessing ordinance.

The following property is to be assessed.

NO. 675.

AN ORDINANCE to amend section 1, of ordinance No. 555, entitled "An ordinance to amend section 250 of rules of government of police and night watchmen and to amend section 131, of chapter XI, of the revised ordinances of East Liverpool, O.," passed April 12, 1898.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the council of the city of East Liverpool, Ohio, that section 1 of ordinance No. 555, entitled "an ordinance to amend section 250 of rules for government of police and night watchmen
and to amend section 131 of chapter
XI, of the revised ordinances," passed
April 12, 1898, be amended so as to read as follows: "Be entering upon
the duties of his office, each policeman
and night watchman shall take the oath required by law and give bond
in the penal sum of five hundred ($500)
dollars; with sureties to the approval
of the mayor and council, conditioned
as required by law. Each of the policemen and night watchmen shall receive the sum of $2.50 per day and he shall not demand or receive any
other fee, perquisite or reward.
The city marshal shall receive a salary of seven hundred and twenty ($720) dollars per annum, payable monthly out of the city treasury, in addition to the legal fees which may be collected.

Section 2. All ordinances or parts
of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Had Lost His Fourth.

One of Judge Howland's stories had to do with the old Maine farmer who had been married four times. Shortly after the death of his fourth wife a neighbor stopped him and said:

"Mornin', Cyrus. How's the wife this mornin'?"

"Waal, to tell ye the truth," replied Cyrus, "I'm kinder out of wives just now."—Detroit Free Press.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Belmont Club Ball—The Belmont club will hold its first dance of the season at Rock Springs tomorrow night.

Cut His Head—A son of Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Reinartz fell on Washington street yesterday and cut an ugly gash in his head.

Exams. in Progress—The final examinations were begun at the various schools of the city yesterday. They will be continued until next Wednesday.

Summer Togs for Postmen—The summer outfit of the local letter carriers have been received and includes a broad brimmed sombrero, which is calculated to act as a sunshade.

Judgment Awarded Plaintiff—Judgment by default was rendered in Justice McLane's court last evening against Charles Smith for $7.80 in favor of Miss R. Bills. The money was claimed as a balance due on a grocery bill.

Only One Arrest—James Dixon was arrested last night by Officer Dawson on a charge of intoxication. He was taken to jail, but as Mayor Davidson is absent from the city today, Dixon has not yet got a hearing. No other arrests were made.

He Will Dance—Charles C. Armstrong, the local colored buck dancer, left for Wheeling last night, where he is entered in a dancing contest to take place tonight in that city. He is also matched against a Steubenville dancer in a contest to take place at the Albion house in this city two weeks hence.

Goes to New Mexico—Edward Roe, of Third street, who has been suffering from throat trouble for the past nine months, will leave in a few days for an extended trip through the southwest in the hope that his condition may be improved. If the climate proves beneficial he may remain in New Mexico.

Performed Wonders—The Massillon papers give an interesting report of the lecture on liquid air, given in that city by Prof. J. E. Woodland last week. Among the wonders performed by the aid of the new substance were the freezing of mercury and alcohol, the latter requiring a temperature of 202 degrees below zero. Mercury was frozen so hard that it was used as a hammer to drive nails. Prof. Woodland lectures here Friday evening.

MOTORMEN'S GAME

Resulted in a Victory for the Rock Springs Railway Team.

The much-talked-of ball game between the motormen of the East Liverpool team and the Rock Springs railway employees was played at Rock Springs park yesterday afternoon. The teams agreed to play five innings only on account of the rain.

The East Liverpool boys expected a walkover, but neglected to play ball. The result was that when the game ended the score stood 15 to 8 in favor of the Rock Springs men. The East Liverpool motormen are busy today explaining how it happened.

THE FINDLAY STRIKE

Causes Potters of That City to Seek Employment Elsewhere.

C. T. Shuler arrived in this city from Findlay last evening and will secure employment in some of the potteries here.

The gentleman is one of 25 or 30 employees of the Findlay pottery who went on strike in Findlay six weeks ago yesterday. Mr. Shuler is a kiln-hand and expects to locate here permanently. He states that the strikers represent all the trades, and are demanding the enforcement of the uniform wage scale in operation at most of the western manufacturing concerns. A few men are still at work in all departments, although very little work is being done.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Mrs. George Frederick and Dr. J. I. McMillen Soon to Wed.

The engagement of Dr. J. I. McMillen, of Leetonia, and Mrs. George Frederick, of this city, has been announced. The wedding will take place on June 12 at the home of Mrs. Frederick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, High street, Salem, in the presence of only the intimate friends of the contracting parties. The couple will make their home in Leetonia.

We have just received the second carload of plants from Leroy Lambone, of Alliance, consisting of cemetery plants, bedding plants, also for baskets and vases. This is the finest selection ever brought to the city. Call and see them at T. B. Murphy & Son.

ACTIVITY DECLINED

Aggregate Sales in Stock Market Fell Lower Than in Many Months

New York, May 22.—There was a still further decline in activity in the stock market Tuesday, the aggregate sales falling to a figure that has not been touched before in many months.

The nature of the business is indicated by the example of several stocks Tuesday. Union Pacific was sold Monday on reports of an additional issue of convertible bonds to finance the Northern Pacific stock purchase.

Tuesday the fact was confirmed that the company had applied to the stock exchange to list the additional bonds, yet Union Pacific rose at one time 4½ over Monday night.

Missouri Pacific was weak Monday on the statement that the expected dividend would not be declared at once; Tuesday the directors met without acting on the dividend, yet the stock rose four points over the early low point.

In other words, the bears of Monday were covering their contracts Tuesday. The buying of railroads and capitalists to effect changes in control of various railroad systems, which was supposed to make up the bulk of the buying in the boom market, when dealings ran between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 shares a day, is also inconspicuous, although rumors of such dealings continue to play some part, especially in Union Pacific, which is credited by the newest rumors with securing an interest in St. Paul.

The strength of the Toledo, St. Louis and Western stocks is accompanied by intimations about the exchange that the buying is for Vanderbilt account with a view to elimination of competition. The old story of a consolidation of Southwestern roads was revived Tuesday in connection with the rally in Missouri Pacific.

The continuation of the injunction against Amalgamated Copper merger projects accounted for the early weakness of that stock. American Linseed and National Lead were coincidentally strong, rather strangely, since the absorption of the linseed company by the Union Lead and Oil company is supposed to indicate increased competition for the National Lead company. The greater ease of money Tuesday had some influence in the recovery of prices.

The bond market was dull and inclined to weakness early, but showed some recoveries later in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2,790,000.

U. S. new 4s declined ¼ per cent on the last call.

TWO SHAMROCKS RACED.

Ryde, Isle of Wight, May 22.—The trial of the Shamrock II and the Shamrock I was in many respects the most puzzling that has yet taken place. Instead of throwing additional light upon the abilities of the challenger, the race made it more difficult than ever to estimate its speed.

When they finished at Nab Light-ship the times were: The Shamrock I, 2 hours, 6 minutes and 12 seconds; the Shamrock II, 2 hours, 11 minutes and 19 seconds.

The opinion of most of the experts who witnessed the race was that, had it been desired that the Shamrock II should win, she could easily have done so.

Bristol, R. I., May 22.—Up and down Narragansett bay the cup defender Constitution was put through her first races and acquitted herself, as Mr. Duncan, her master, said, most satisfactorily.

FISTIC ENCOUNTER

In Which Two Motormen are Said to Have Engaged—One Was Badly Punished.

Two motormen, one being employed on the Rock Springs electric line and the other on the East Liverpool line, are said to have engaged in a fight last night in the alley north of the Diamond.

One of the duelists is reported to have received a severe beating and would have fared more badly had not assistance reached him.

Couldn't Follow Him.

At a small country church in England a newly married couple were just receiving some advice from the elderly vicar as to how they were to conduct themselves and so always live happily.

"You must never both get cross at once; it is the husband's duty to protect his wife whenever an occasion arises, and a wife must love, honor and obey her husband and follow him wherever he goes."

"But, sir," pleaded the young bride, "I haven't yet finished," remarked the clergyman, annoyed at the interruption.

"She must"—
"But, please, sir (in desperation), can't you alter that last part? My husband is going to be a postman."

Not He.

"No, sir," replied the seedy vagrant, who was not wanting in spirit. "The other fellow vuz the bruiser. I'm the bruisee."—Chicago Tribune.

Independent.

We admire the independence of a western poet who says in a preface to his volume: "If the critics don't like this book, I wish to say to them that I do. If they tear it to tatters, I shall pick up the pieces and embark in the plastering business. I am here to stay, and you bet I've made up my mind to it."—Atlanta Constitution.

SHOOT, ROWING, TRACK, TENNIS.

One of the most prominent and striking features of the summer sporting season this year will be the international contests. America and England have for many years carried on games and competitions of all kinds in which representatives from both countries took part. This year the contests promise to be of more than usual interest, as men from France, Germany, and Italy as well, have stated their intention of participating in the various meets.

The Henley regatta of 1901 will be hotly fought. The picked crew from the University of Pennsylvania that will represent the stars and stripes in the historic English rowing races will doubtless "cut a big figure" in settling the international premiership in this branch of aquatic sports. The crews from abroad are strong opponents, but Coach Ellis Ward of the Quaker eight is hopeful of the showing of American brain and brawn when the oarsmen strive for honors in July.

Considerable attention is being directed toward the American marksmen

who arrived in England a few days ago on a tour of the European trap shooting centers. Thomas A. Marshall, mayor of Keithsburg, Ill., is captain of the team. Marshall is one of the best known shots in this country. He won the Grand American Handicap two different years, and his experience will aid the ten men accompanying him in the shooting tourneys with the foreign marksmen.

The international rifle shooting matches take place at Sea Girt, N. J., during the latter part of August and the first week of September. Rifle shots from the United States, England, France, Germany, Switzerland and the Argentine Republic are scheduled to shoot on the national guard ranges. Sir Thomas Lipton will be one of the guests of honor.

The American-English tennis tournament is another event of transatlantic interest. The British team suffered a severe trouncing on this side of the pond last year. Gore, Black and Barrett, however, have been succeeded by the famous Doherty brothers, the English champions, who will use every art and dodge in their repertory to reverse the result.

The tennis matches will probably be held on St. George's cricket grounds, Hoboken, N. J., in July.

In track and field events the international crop will be very large. A team of four or five leading American athletes is to invade Great Britain in a few weeks. Richard Sheldon, the Yale shot putter and hammer thrower; I. K. Baxter, the Pennsylvania jumper; Alexander Grant, the Quaker long distance runner, and John Flanagan, the N. Y. A. C. hammer thrower, are to pay their own expenses abroad in amateur contests.

A large aggregation of Britishers will come over here to enter the Pan-American international games at Buffalo during the summer. Dennis Hogan, the famous Irish athlete who defeated Sheldon in the hammer throw last year, is coming with the sons of John Bull.

Yale and Harvard have arranged games with Cambridge and Oxford, which will be decided on Berkeley oval, New York, the scene of the recent American intercollegiate athletic carnival.

It is a significant fact that the American jockeys and horse owners in England have been benefited by Dame Fortune's smiles this season. The snappy young riders Johnny and Lester Reiff have an imposing array of winnings to their credit. Their career might well be termed phenomenal. Danny Maher, who rode for August Belmont here last year, has also been doing well on the English turf. Truly the "American style" of riding, ridiculed at first by England's horsemen, has been vindicated.

Golfing Gossip.

Fred Morgan, the popular professional golfer who came to this country a few months ago, has accepted the position of instructor of the Racine Golf association, Wisconsin. Morgan became well known as an amateur on the famous old St. Andrew's links. He is highly spoken of by H. H. Hilton, who has won the open championship of England three times.

Not Anxious.

"You have quite a number of the poets," said Goodby, who was inspecting Woodby's library. "Ah, there's Browning. Do you understand him?" "No; I don't," said Woodby. "Ah," said Goodby, continuing his examination, "have you Præd?" "Certainly not. What's the use of praying? I ain't anxious to understand him."—Philadelphia Record.

Hot Water Peddlers.

In northern China hot water peddlers go about with a whistling kettle, the whistle announcing that the water is at a boiling point. When they hear the whistle, the people run with their teapots and buy enough hot water for their day's tea.

Snakes of all sizes abound in the Sumatra jungles. Monster lizards are there, measuring six and seven feet. The house lizard is about 12 inches long and makes a noise like the bark of a toy terrier.
